First Week of Advent
 November 30th

One of the best and the simplest ways to tune our spiritual lives to Advent is reading and praying with the Scripture readings for Sunday and daily Mass.

The readings for the First Sunday of Advent emphasize waiting. A world lost in sin and darkness waits, hopes, and yearns. We trust in God, for he has promised light—but when will it come? How?

Every one of us has some part of our lives that yearns for light, that is in deep need of reconciliation, or that feels lost. A glance at newspaper headlines tells us how great is the need of this broken world. Come, Lord Jesus! Will probably be an easy prayer for this week.

Prayer: In hope, I wait for the fullness of Your presence, Lord. Come, Lord Jesus!

Thanksgiving Prayer

*Gracious and generous God,
 We come before you today*

With grateful hearts.

In the beauty and bounty of creation

we see the work of your hand;

in the loving faces around us.

We know your own love for us

May this meal nourish us and strengthen us

so others may know your plenty

in our kindness,

And see your care and concern

in our witness.

Let us live true lives of gratitude,

As we pray in thanks to you, our God

Who lives forever and ever. Amen

Gospel Reading

Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus teaches that when the Son of Man comes in glory, he will judge the nations, separating the sheep from the goats.

Today's Gospel passage is the conclusion of Jesus' discourse with his disciples. It is about the end of time, the coming of the Son of Man, and the final judgment. We hear this description of the final judgment at the conclusion of our liturgical year, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King. In the context of Matthew's Gospel, this passage might also be read as a conclusion of Matthew's report on Jesus' life and ministry; the remaining chapters report the events of Jesus' Passion and Resurrection.

In today's Gospel, Jesus describes to his disciples the scene of the judgment of the Son of Man. All the nations will be assembled before him, and he will separate them as a shepherd separates sheep and goats upon their return from the pasture. The judgments made by the Son of Man will be based upon the acts of mercy shown to the least ones—the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, the ill, and the imprisoned. Indeed, Jesus, who suffered on the Cross, identifies himself with the least ones.

Recall that last week's parable of the talents taught us that the gifts that we have been given are intended to be used for the service of others, especially the least among us. Our judgment before God will be based not only on how we have used these gifts and talents, but also on how we have extended ourselves in service to these least ones. Indeed, Jesus tells us that whenever we have served these least ones, we have served Christ himself.

When we read today's Gospel in the context of the chapters that follow in Matthew's Gospel, we learn the extent to which Jesus identifies with the least ones. In accepting death on the cross, Jesus shows himself to be one of the hungry, the naked, the ill, and the imprisoned. To accept Jesus is to accept him who suffered and died on the Cross as one of the least ones.

Forming Families through Adoption

Catholic Charities of Dallas is committed to building families...one child at a time. Every child needs and deserves a home with the love and support of a mother and a father. As we observe National Adoption Awareness Month, we celebrate all of those wonderful families that have been formed through adoption.

Due to a variety of circumstances, there are birth parents who recognize they are unable to provide for their child. Some are birth mothers who were courageous enough to choose adoption not abortion for their baby but are unable to provide the home and family the child needs. It is a blessing for birth parents to have Catholic Charities to turn to for assistance in making an adoption plan.

For couples wishing to parent a child from infant to six months, Catholic Charities' Infant Adoption program offers the assistance needed to make the right choice for the birth parents, adoptive parents, and, most importantly, the child.

There are other children who are in the foster care system, who live day-to-day, never knowing when or where they will move next. They long to be a permanent part of a "forever family." Catholic Charities Finally Home program places children three or older currently in foster care for adoption by a family who will provide the love, care and security that only a "forever home" can give them.

If you or someone you know is experiencing an unplanned pregnancy and needs to find such a home for a baby, please call Catholic Charities hotline at 1-800-222-9383 (1-800-BABY-DUE) to get more information.

If you are a couple that has love to share and are considering forming your family through adoption, please call (214) 526-2772 to schedule an appointment. It will be the first step in experiencing the unconditional love and excitement that children bring.

Formando Familias Mediante la Adopción

Caridades Católicas de Dallas se ha comprometido en formar familias...un niño a la vez. Cada niño necesita un hogar y merece contar con el amor y apoyo de una madre y un padre. Al conmemorar el Mes Nacional de Concientización para la Adopción, celebramos a todas esas maravillosas familias que han sido formadas mediante la adopción.

Debido a una variedad de circunstancias, hay padres que se reconocen incapaces de brindar lo necesario a sus hijos. Algunos de ellos son madres biológicas que fueron lo suficientemente valientes para elegir la adopción para su bebé por encima del aborto, pero que no pueden brindar el hogar y la familia que el niño necesita. Para los padres biológicos, es una bendición poder acudir a Caridades Católicas en busca de ayuda durante el proceso de adopción.

Para parejas que deseen ser padres de un infante hasta la edad de seis meses, el programa de Adopción de Infantes de Caridades Católicas ofrece la asistencia necesaria para que se tome la mejor decisión para los padres biológicos, los padres adoptivos y, lo más importante, para el bebé.

Hay otros niños que están en el sistema del cuidado de crianza, y que viven día-tras-día, sin saber cuándo o dónde será su próximo hogar. Ellos desean ser parte de una “familia para siempre.” El programa Finalmente en Casa de Caridades Católicas coloca a niños de tres años o más, que actualmente se encuentran en cuidado de crianza, en adopción con una familia que les ofrecerá el amor, cuidado y seguridad que sólo “finalmente en casa” puede ofrecerles.

Si usted, o alguien que usted conoce, está experimentando un embarazo no planeado y necesita encontrar un hogar para un bebé, por favor comuníquese a la línea directa de Caridades Católicas al 1-800-222-9383 (1-800-BABY-DUE) para obtener más información.

Si son una pareja que desea compartir su amor y está considerando formar una familia mediante la adopción, le pedimos que llame al (214) 526-2772 para programar una cita. Será su primer paso para experimentar el amor incondicional y la alegría que traen los niños.
