.PRAY DAILY

Each Christian needs half an hour of prayer each day, except when we are busy; then we need an hour. —St. Francis de Sales

WATCH YOUR POSTURE

Our posture is often a tip-off to our hospitality and reverence for the Lord. Note the actions of Abraham as he greeted the Lord in the presence of three men who appeared near his tent. He ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them. He bowed to the ground as he met them. He and Sarah, his wife, hastened to prepare a meal and bring food and water to their guests.

In the Gospel story, Jesus' friend Mary sat at his feet in order to listen to him speak.

How do we welcome and reverence the Lord? What do our actions show? Do we remember the Lord's presence in the Blessed Sacrament? How do we welcome the Lord in the scripture readings? How do we acknowledge his presence in our brothers and sisters, both at Mass and afterwards?

Whether we kneel, stand, or sit in the Lord's presence, may our hearts and minds always be attuned to him.

Violence and deaths in downtown Dallas      by Bishop Kevin J Farrell

The magnitude of the violence in downtown Dallas Thursday night is staggering. Five police officers were killed and seven other officers and two civilians were wounded in a deadly spate of gunfire at the conclusion of a peaceful march protesting recent killings of black men in Baton Rouge and Minneapolis.

Our first concern is for the families who have lost loved ones in this tragic attack. We pray for consolation and healing for both the families and those killed and wounded. We are reminded of the ever-present danger to those who are dedicated to protecting us.

We have been swept up in the escalating cycle of violence that has now touched us intimately as it has others throughout our country and the world. All lives matter: black, white, Muslim, Christian, Hindu. We are all children of God and all human life is precious.

We cannot lose respect for each other and we call upon all of our civic leaders to speak to one another and work together to come to a sensible resolution to this escalating violence. Let us implore God our Heavenly Father to touch the minds and hearts of all people to work together for peace and understanding.

Let us recall the words of Pope Francis, “May the God of peace arouse in all an authentic desire for dialogue and reconciliation. Violence cannot be overcome with violence. Violence is overcome with peace.”

Ignorar el sufrimiento del otro es ignorar a Dios      by Bishop Kevin J Farrell

Predicando acerca Parábola del Buen Samaritano, el Papa Francisco expresó que ignorar el sufrimiento de otra persona es ignorar a Dios.

Predicando acerca Parábola del Buen Samaritano, el Papa Francisco expresó que ignorar el sufrimiento de otra persona es ignorar a Dios.

En la parábola aparecen cuatro personajes principales. La víctima, un viajero inocente asaltado por bandidos, quienes lo dejan herido al lado del camino a Jericó, un símbolo de Jesús. Un sacerdote y un Levita, ambos judíos religiosos. Y un samaritano viajero, un forastero de una toparquía o provincia de Judea. Entre los judíos y samaritanos religiosos existía antipatía e incluso enemistad.

Jesús señalaba que nuestro prójimo, a quienes los judíos debían amar como a sí mismos (Levítico 19,18), significaba ir más allá de sus hermanos judíos y que la religión requiere mucho más que realizar rituales religiosos. Sus enseñanzas dejaban en claro la despiadada indiferencia hacia el sufrimiento de la víctima mostrados por el sacerdote y el Levita, la cual estaba en contraste con la misericordia compasiva del menospreciado samaritano.

“No es automático que quien frecuenta la casa de Dios y conoce su misericordia sepa amar al prójimo”, señaló el Papa, “La misericordia de Dios hacia nosotros está relacionada con nuestra misericordia hacia el prójimo; [...] Si yo no abro la puerta de mi corazón al pobre, aquella puerta permanece cerrada, también para Dios, y esto es terrible”.
