Mother Teresa's Canonization

Masses, prayer vigils, exhibitions and even a musical will be some of the many events taking place in Rome to celebrate the canonization of Blessed Mother Teresa on Sept. 4.

Not only will Pope Francis be raising Mother Teresa to the altars at a canonization Mass in St. Peter's Square on Sept. 4, the entire week — Sept. 1-8 — will be devoted to celebrating the Albanian religious sister who became known as the "angel of the slums."

The events begin on Sept. 1, with the opening of an "Exposition of the Life, Spirit and Message of Mother Teresa" at the LUMSA university in Rome. The exposition will last until Sept. 7.

On the evening of Sept. 1, the Missionaries of Charity will provide a "family feast" for the poor under their care at the Santa Cecilia auditorium on the Via della Conciliazione. Part of the evening's highlights: Mother Teresa: The Musical by the Italian musician, author, singer and actor Michele Paulicelli.

Three consecutive Masses to honor Mother Teresa are scheduled for the following day in three languages — English, Spanish and Italian — at the Basilica of St. Anastasia, close to the Missionaries of Charity motherhouse and Rome's Circus Maximus, with veneration of the relics of Blessed Teresa of Kolkata after each Mass.

Mercy is a major theme of the canonization, and the sacrament of reconciliation will be available during the Masses. In the afternoon, pilgrims are free to pass through the holy doors of the basilica or see an exhibition celebrating Mother Teresa's life.

A prayer vigil with solemn adoration will take place in the evening at St. John Lateran Basilica, led by Cardinal Agostino Vallini, the vicar of Rome. The theme is "Radiating the Light of Christ: A Call to Holiness," praying for "holy families, holy consecrated men and women and, especially, for holy priests, ministers of mercy." The faithful will also given the opportunity to go to confession during adoration.

"Holiness is not the luxury of the few," Mother Teresa once said. "It is a simple duty for each one of us." She also called on priests to "make Jesus present and alive in the Eucharist," or the world "cannot live, and neither we nor our families can grow into holiness."

NEW Hymnals on the Horizon!

NEW Hymnals on the Horizon!

This is an exciting time for Holy Family. After weeks of careful research, our liturgy team has selected a new worship resource for our parish. In the near future, we will be using the OCP Glory & Praise Hymnals for Sunday Masses and other liturgies. Offering new songs as well as old favorites, it will be a very good fit for our community.

You don't have to be a great singer or musician to contribute to our worship program. You can "sponsor" one of our new hymnals for just $16.00. Each sponsored hymnal will contain a bookplate that reads, "Given as a gift by _____ in the name of _____" or simply "Given as a gift by _____". Take this opportunity to honor loved ones or commemorate a special event by sponsoring a hymnal.

Special donation envelopes will be available. Additional money raised will go toward other resources for our music program.

Calling all Holy Family SISTERS! (SIS = Sisters in Spirit):

We will be resuming our ladies monthly get together's on Friday, September 23 at 7 PM. We will meet in the church.

This group was formed last fall and suffered some growing pains during Lenten Fridays and the spring festival. We then took the summer off.

This year we would like to discuss projects and activities that help us to enjoy one another while assisting members of the parish and the community. We will also choose a night best suited for the majority of the group.

We are not a guild. We are not a committee. We are not a fund raising group. We are a group of women who enjoy playing games, get-to-know one another and simply talk. We took part in assisting the Knights with a few Lenten meals and helped at the festival. We hosted the after Mass social. There are many things we can do to share our Christian faith and have fun! Join us and bring your ideas! All adult women are welcome!

See Teri Dalke or Denise Corcoran for more information!

Miscellaneous

Monthly Mass for Catholics in Recovery – September 10th

This month's Diocesan Calix Mass will be offered at 8:30 am on September 10th in the St. Jude Parish chapel (1515 N Greenville Ave, Allen). The Mass, and meeting that follows, is open to members of all parishes who are recovering alcoholics or recovering from addictions, and their families and friends. Calix meetings provide for sharing our experience, strength and hope found in Catholicism and 12-Step recovery. For more information on the Calix Society, call your parish or 214-906-0605, or see www.calixsociety.org and, for the Dallas Diocese Unit see calixstjudeparish.com.

This Calix unit serves the Dallas Diocese and holds its Mass and meetings on the second Saturday of every month at 8:30 AM in the St. Jude Church Chapel.

Wednesday Evening Bible Classes Starting September 14th at 7:30 pm

Phil Hunter, wanted to share the plans for this years Bible study. An overview of the Torah including pre-history chapters of Genesis, followed by letters to Paul will be considered plus Hebrews. This will cover from Genesis to Revelations as to when it was written down plus oral tradition. Those that attended last years Bible study have found the knowledge they learned has inspired them to resign up. Please

"The times talk to us of so much poverty in the world and this is a scandal. Poverty in the world is a scandal. In a world where there is so much wealth, so many resources to feed everyone, it is unfathomable that there are so many hungry children, that there are so many children without an education, so many poor persons. Poverty today is a cry." - Pope Francis

USCCB President Calls For National Day Of Prayer And Appoints Special Task Force To Promote Peace And Unity

- WASHINGTON—In light of recent incidents of violence and racial tension in communities across the United States, the president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has invited all dioceses across the country to unite in a Day of Prayer for Peace in Our Communities. He has also appointed a special task force to support bishops in marking that Day of Prayer, and more broadly, in promoting peace and healing during this time of great strain on civil society.
- On July 8, in his initial and immediate response to the racially-related shootings in Baton Rouge, Minneapolis and Dallas, Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz of Louisville, Kentucky, noted the need to look at ways the Catholic Church can walk with and help these suffering communities. The initiatives announced today begin to address that need.
- "I have stressed the need to look toward additional ways of nurturing an open, honest and civil dialogue on issues of race relations, restorative justice, mental health, economic opportunity, and addressing the question of pervasive gun violence," Archbishop Kurtz said. "The Day of Prayer and special Task Force will help us advance in that direction. By stepping forward to embrace the suffering, through unified, concrete action animated by the love of Christ, we hope to nurture peace and build bridges of communication and mutual aid in our own communities."
- The Day of Prayer for Peace in Our Communities will be celebrated on the feast of St. Peter Claver, September 9, and will serve as a focal point for the work of the task force.
- The purpose of the Task Force is to help bishops engage the challenging problems directly, by various means: gathering and disseminating supportive resources and "best practices"; actively listening to the concerns of members in troubled communities and law enforcement; and building strong relationships to help prevent and resolve conflicts. The Task Force will conclude its work with a report on its activities and recommendations for future work to the November General Assembly.
- Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory of Atlanta, former USCCB president, will chair the task force.
- "I am honored to lead this Task Force which will assist my brother bishops, individually and as a group, to accompany suffering communities on the path toward peace and reconciliation," said Archbishop Gregory. "We are one body in Christ, so we must walk with our brothers and sisters and renew our commitment to promote healing. The suffering is not somewhere else, or someone else's; it is our own, in our very dioceses."
- Other members are: Archbishop Thomas G. Wenski of Miami, chairman of the USCCB Committee on Domestic Social Development; Bishop Shelton J. Fabre of Houma-Thibodaux, Louisiana, chairman of the USCCB Subcommittee for African American Affairs; Bishop John H. Ricard, SSJ, Bishop Emeritus of Pensacola-Tallahassee, Florida, former chairman of the USCCB Subcommittee on the Church in Africa, member of the USCCB Subcommittee for African American Affairs, and member of the board of the National Black Catholic Congress; and Bishop Jaime Soto of Sacramento, California, chairman of the USCCB Subcommittee on the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD).
- The Task Force will also have numerous bishop consultants, including USCCB vice president Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo of Galveston-Houston, as well as bishops whose jurisdictions have experienced extreme gun violence, or who otherwise bring special insight or experience on related questions. An equal or smaller number of lay consultants with relevant expertise will be appointed soon thereafter. Originally published on USCCB.org
