You were buried with him in baptism,
in which you were also raised with him
through faith in the power of God,
who raised him from the dead.

— Colossians 2:12

Por el bautismo fueron ustedes sepultados con Cristo
y también resucitaron con él,
mediante la fe en el poder de Dios,
que lo resucitó de entre los muertos.

HOLY FAMILY CATHOLIC PARISH

Welcome Bienvenido Fr Javier Diaz

as our Parochial Vicar./ Como nuestro Vicario Parroquial

El Padre Díaz viene de la Iglesia de St Elizabeth Ann Seton, donde ha servido como Vicario Parroquial

Greetings to all. As you have probably heard by now, my name is Fr. Javier. I am 34 years old, I am the oldest of four, and originally from Morelia, Michoacán, Mexico. I was ordained a priest, through the mercy of God, on June 3, 2017.

Growing up, I never imagined that I would one day be a priest. When I was 12 years old I passed through a moment in my life where I did not want to know anything about God or religion, and this was due to the sufferings I was going through, mainly the fact that I grew up without my parents. This affected very much my relationship with God, since I blamed him for this. Eventually I came to live with my mother and she had remarried so I now also had a stepfather, whom I was not able to get along with. We would always go to church on Sundays, but for me I was going just because I had to, not because I thought God would help me. This situation at home only brought me to be even more alone, because I couldn't speak to my parents or my siblings. It reached a moment when I couldn't take this anymore. So out of desperation I asked God to help me.

A few months later my parents went to hear some catechesis in the parish, and began their journey of faith through the Neocatechumenal Way, an itinerary of faith through which you begin to grow in faith through small communities of people of different ages, and backgrounds. Through this small community the life of my parents began to change, especially my stepfather. And it was here where I realized that God did exist, and that he did care about my life, because I saw how at that moment he heard my prayer and helped me. Eventually I also entered into a community of the Neocatechumenal Way and through the community I was able to experience the love of God in my life, to reconcile with my parents, and also it was there that I saw that God was calling me to the seminary.

I was sent to the Redemptoris Mater Diocesan Missionary Seminary in Dallas in May 2005. The time of seminary was challenging, but it was there that I began to see the power of the announcement of the good news, and the need for the people of God to receive this announcement. I am really grateful to God for giving me the gift of this vocation. This gift shows me the faithfulness of the Lord and it is a sign for me that nothing is impossible for God. I am happy with my assignment to St. Michael's and Holy Family. I am really looking forward to getting to know the parishioners, and to serve, and help in any way that I may be needed. God bless.
