

Job Opening
DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Annunciation of the Lord Parish in Decatur, AL has an opening for a Director of Religious Education. This position oversees the ministry of catechesis for both children and adults including:

- Religious education classes for grades 1-12
- Sacramental preparation classes for First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Confirmation for youth
- Life-long catechesis for adults.

An ideal candidate would possess degree or certificate (or currently enrolled) in Theology and Catechesis and/or willing to seek further professional study. A minimum of three years' experience in Catholic parish ministry is preferred. Candidate should demonstrate knowledge of principles and dimensions of Catholic evangelization, life-long faith catechesis, youth faith formation, and catechist formation. Due to the nature of this position, candidate must be a practicing Roman Catholic active in a parish, parochial or religious community and possess a working knowledge of Catholic teaching and doctrine. The ability to speak Spanish is preferred.

In addition to strong communication skills, candidate must have flexibility to work evenings and weekends. This is a 30 hour per week, benefit eligible position. Interested candidates should submit letter of interest, resume and references to Fr. Charles Merrill, Pastor, at parish@annunlord.com.
