

Dress Code Lectors & Eucharistic Ministers at Mass.

Your outside appearance reveals your inner attitudes. A little extra care as you dress for Mass will actually help you to prepare for what you are about to do as a minister of the Word and Eucharist. It also leads others to see the importance of what we do in worship. The Mass is no Sunday afternoon chore or trip to the library. The Mass is the highest expression of praise and thanks that the people of God can give. The Mass is a miracle of eternal significance when heaven touches earth, bread and wine become Jesus. The Mass is where God speaks to us and feeds us. Let's communicate that to others in the way we dress for ministry.

Lectors – Guys: slacks/pants and a nice shirt with a collar (some have worn a tie – very nice). Dressy jeans are okay, but pants are way better. Nice shoes. Ladies: a modest dress, skirt, shirt, etc. dress shoes. Make sure it's not too short and your shoulders are covered and neckline is appropriate. Never wear shorts, flip-flops, sweats, t-shirts, lake attire.

Eucharistic Ministers – Pants/slacks, dress/skirt, or nice jeans (clean, no holes, rips, fades, not tight) and nice shirt w/ collar (that covers shoulders, appropriate neckline). Wear Shoes, dress shoes are best. Never wear shorts, flip-flops, sweats or hoodies, t-shirts, ripped jeans, etc.

Fill-in's – We are always in need of fill-in's, so if you are not on the schedule but are coming to Mass, dress nicely enough to fill-in just in case you are needed. And if for some reason, you aren't dressed appropriately, let someone else fill-in.
