St. Margaret Mary Alacoque
Saint of the day for October 16

Margaret Mary was chosen by Christ to arouse the Church to a realization of the love of God symbolized by the heart of Jesus.
Her early years were marked by sickness and a painful home situation. "The heaviest of my crosses was that I could do nothing to lighten the cross my mother was suffering." After considering marriage for some time, Margaret Mary entered the Order of the Visitation nuns at the age of 24. A Visitation nun was "not to be extraordinary except by being ordinary," but the young nun was not to enjoy this anonymity. A fellow novice termed Margaret Mary humble, simple, and frank, but above all, kind and patient under sharp criticism and correction. She could not meditate in the formal way expected, though she tried her best to give up her “prayer of simplicity." Slow, quiet, and clumsy, she was assigned to help an infirmarian who was a bundle of energy. On December 21, 1674, three years a nun, she received the first of her revelations. She felt "invested" with the presence of God, though always afraid of deceiving herself in such matters. The request of Christ was that his love for humankind be made evident through her. During the next 13 months, Christ appeared to her at intervals. His human heart was to be the symbol of his divine-human love. By her own love Margaret Mary was to make up for the coldness and ingratitude of the world—by frequent and loving Holy Communion, especially on the first Friday of each month, and by an hour's vigil of prayer every Thursday night in memory of his agony and isolation in Gethsemané. He also asked that a feast of reparation be instituted.
Like all saints, Margaret Mary had to pay for her gift of holiness. Some of her own sisters were hostile. Theologians who were called in declared her visions delusions and suggested that she eat more heartily. Later, parents of children she taught called her an impostor, an unorthodox innovator. A new confessor, the Jesuit Claude de la Colombière, recognized her genuineness and supported her. Against her great resistance, Christ called her to be a sacrificial victim for the shortcomings of her own sisters, and to make this known. After serving as novice mistress and assistant superior, Margaret Mary died at the age of 43, while being anointed. She said: "I need nothing but God, and to lose myself in the heart of Jesus."
Reflection: Our scientific-materialistic age cannot "prove" private revelations. Theologians, if pressed, admit that we do not have to believe in them. But it is impossible to deny the message Margaret Mary heralded: that God loves us with a passionate love. Her insistence on reparation and prayer and the reminder of final judgment should be sufficient to ward off superstition and superficiality in devotion to the Sacred Heart while preserving its deep Christian meaning.

News From The Streets... Who Are They?

By Mary Martha Primerano

Where’s your family Mary? You tell us you have Jesus in your heart – that makes you part of our family, the family of God. Now let’s get you to a hospital, call 911, come quick and pick up Mary. Mary is from Navasota, Texas. Why did you leave Navasota to be discovered in a big Metropolis in your soiled pants? Where is everyone? These are the questions that ran through my mind when we found Mary.

That same morning we met someone else, a grandfather lying on his back with his midsection so swollen it looked like he swallowed a watermelon. Gary can’t move because of the pain. What’s wrong? Why so discouraged? Who did you let break your heart? The homeless SEARCH Van comes and insists you go to the hospital. They put you in the van and head for the hospital—only for you to check yourself out and return to the streets. You go back to that soiled mattress under the freeway, but at least this is where your friends are.

Doing ministry on the streets can get rough, and confusing at times. This is why it’s important that our main focus is to bring the gospel of love. It can be difficult to watch someone sitting in their own urine and feces. The pain for Gary is so great that he no longer can bear to move. Someone from our team bought him some cupcakes because it was his birthday. We all sang Happy Birthday to you, and ended with a verse that says, “We’re glad God made you.” But suddenly a gentleman joins our circle, and with hands held together he begins to sing out loud, “Bless the Lord O my soul and all that is within me!” We all joined in with arms surrendered to Him. Before we were done with ministry there were at least 4 different homeless people from the camp who told us to check on a young woman sitting on the grass alone. We found Mary, down the street, with a severely sunburned face and arms, and of course those soiled pants again. She cannot explain to us why she’s been sitting there for hours, or possibly days. She does manage to tell us she has Jesus in her heart. The whole team is moved with compassion, and begins to pray for her and we call for an ambulance.

What was it that made you just give up and believe the lie that you are not loved or valuable? Did it start with rejection? Here’s the real truth about you, found in Isaiah 41:9 “You whom I took from the ends of the earth, and called from its farthest corners, saying to you, you are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you off.” He has not cast you off! Jesus loves you!

What’s happened to family Lord? Help us come back to our first love (Revelations 2:4) and return to you as one Body. Not to condemn, but to reach out and love one another.

San Lucas 17, 11-19. Leprosos de ayer y de hoy.- La enfermedad de la lepra era más que una enfermedad para la gente de los tiempos bíblicos. Era vista como una especie de manifestación exterior de un mal interior y por eso se asociaba con el concepto de pecado y con las nociones de inmundicia e impureza. Dentro de esta lógica, la reacción frente a la lepra sólo podía ser de rechazo al mismo leproso. Actitud tanto más grave cuanto que lo que se entendía por "lepra" en aquella época incluía muchas afecciones de la piel y no sólo lo que nosotros entendemos hoy con este nombre. En dos lecturas de hoy, la primera y el evangelio, aparece la victoria sobre la lepra. En el primer caso por la intercesión del profeta Eliseo; en la segunda por el mandato de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Sin embargo, estas dos lecturas tienen en común algo más que una enfermedad.

La Gratitud.- Agradecimiento y gracia están emparentados en español y también en la vida: nada nos mueve tanto a agradecer como recibir un regalo, una gracia, un bien que necesitábamos o deseábamos pero que por alguna razón estaba más allá de nuestras previsiones, recursos o fuerzas. La sanación de la lepra, que implicaba también el comienzo de la sanación de toda la vida social e interpersonal del enfermo, es un regalo, una gracia de esa naturaleza. Y el pagano Naamán lo mismo que el samaritano curado del evangelio de hoy manifiestan una inmensa gratitud. No es casualidad que se trate de dos personas que no pertenecían directamente al pueblo de Dios: precisamente, cuanto más "excluidos" parecía que estaban, más les alegre sentirse y saberse curados. Aquí hay una lección para nosotros: el que más reconoce su necesidad y el que menos cree merecer el remedio es quien mejor lo ve y más pronto ve la mano de Dios y la agradece. Y lo opuesto también es verdad: quien se considere muy fuerte o quien tiene asumido que se lo merece todo no encuentra de qué dar gracias. Fr. Nelson Medina, O.P.
