Reflection by Fr. Javier

As the new Director, I would like to say Welcome to CCM! For the familiar faces, you're back! Back to school! Back to friends you left last May! And in the rush of these events, you're also back to continuing your faith journey. CCM is the place where faith meets life. There are countless ways to be involved here at CCM. From weekly and Sunday Masses to dynamic student activities, from liturgical ministries to meaningful service and leadership opportunities. Starting August 31st, every Thursday we'll have the Sacrament of Reconciliation and adoration from 7:00-9:00pm, followed by Candle-lit Mass at 9:15pm. Throughout the week, we have "Small Groups," one of the best ways to grow in your relationship with God as a faithful Disciple. If you are looking to complete your sacramental life or exploring the possibility of becoming Catholic, we have the R.C.I.A. program as well as sacramental preparation. Planning to get married here in Springfield or elsewhere? You can do your preparation here. How about a place to just relax on a cold winter's night? You could wrap yourself in an afghan and stretch out in front of the fireplace as you ponder how you're going to finish all your homework. Maybe you're a pool shark or you like sand volleyball; you're in luck! Or maybe you just want to chill in front of the TV. Wednesday nights are social nights with food and fun. Friday's lunch can be the start of the weekend. Of course there's a lot more, but I'm running out of space! We are here for you! All are welcome!

I pray that the Holy Spirit may be with you this new academic year and that you may find in CCM "your home away from home."
