ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Mandatory Orientation. Students who miss any part of Orientation or first day(s) of school will be charged a $600 fee to cover the costs associated with rescheduling the various aspects of orientation. The 2021 Orientation Date will be emailed to student and/or agency representation before the scheduled date, but at this time it is expected to be August 17, 2021.

2. Withdrawal/Dismissal of Student. In the event of withdrawal or dismissal, the Tuition Adjustment Schedule in the Financial Policies Brochure applies.

3. Enrollment. It is understood that the Head of School and the Rector reserve the right to suspend or dismiss the student for any cause that they may consider sufficient within the context of the rules and regulations of the school. In the case of withdrawal or dismissal from school, total tuition and fees immediately become due and payable. This contract incorporates all provisions noted in the 2021-2022 Student Parent Handbook and the 2021-2022 Financial Policies Brochure. This contract supersedes any prior agreement, written or oral.

4. Other School Related Payments. Class change fees & reassignment of e-books, returned checks or billing for other school-related activities or services, and/or fines properly assessed may be charged to your tuition account and collected by payment.

5. Refunds of Fees. Refunds of fees for activities, goods or services may be subject to penalty, reduction or withholding should Memorial incur associated costs such as returned checks fees, reservation fees for food, lodging or transportation, postage and handling and other fees. Memorial reserves the right to credit refunds and fee payments to tuition accounts if tuition accounts are not current. Fee refund requests or appeals should be made in writing to the appropriate administrative officer. Receipt of yearbooks, graduation gowns or tickets and entrance to school activities may be postponed if tuition account balances are delinquent and no arrangements have been made with the business office.

6. Suspension/Dismissal. Student(s) with a past due tuition account is subject to suspension and dismissal unless other written arrangements have been made with the Finance Office.
