"One nation under God."*

~PASTOR'S PEN~

MESSAGE FOR NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Church Family,

I recently heard a new term brought on by the pandemic—Covit Fatigue. And I am sure that many of us are showing the symptoms of this condition brought on by the uncertainty and anxiety of our times—the virus, the political climate, racism and economic uncertainty. But through it all, we still hold onto our faith and remind ourselves that if we have the faith, God has the power.

In today's Gospel, the disciples are in the midst of a sudden and violent storm at sea. They are frightened and anxious. They are weary and worn out by the storm. Then comes Jesus, walking on the stormy waters but they think he is a ghost. He speaks to them saying "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Then Peter challenges Jesus by asking him to enable him to walk on the water, too. Peter climbs out of the boat and on to the stormy sea. It all seems to be fine until he takes his eyes off of Jesus, focusing on the wind and the waves and not Jesus. And he begins to sink. He calls out to Jesus who stretches out his hand and saves him. Jesus says to Peter: "O, you of little faith, why did you doubt?" Then together they climb into the boat and wind dies down.

The same can be true for us today. Jesus reaches out and keeps us safe and then gets into our boat and calms the storm. If we have the faith, God's got the power.

May the God who calms the storms of life be with us all during this coming week.

Let's continue to stand together as the Body of Christ here at St. Thomas More as:

1. We continue to fight the virus with face coverings, hand washing, and physical distancing. This is how we "love our neighbor as ourselves."
2. We reach out to others and help when the need arises. Practicing physical distancing doesn't mean social isolation. Keep on caring for each other.
3. We recognize the sacred and prophetic power we possess as we exercise our right to vote.

Stay safe and be blessed,

Father Moore
