ALL SAINTS

Dear Church Family,

We gather together today in celebration of All Saints Day. This annual observance only occasionally falls on Sunday. So, this year we are especially blessed as we remember “all the saints” whose lives reflected holiness and devotion to the Gospel. We honor those whose quiet witness encouraged us and our own personal commitments to Jesus Christ.

The Gospel for today is always taken from Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5:1-12.) Away from the crowds, Jesus sits down with his disciples and teaches them the path to holiness—contained in the Beatitudes. These followers have already decided that they will follow Jesus and have left family and livelihoods to do just that. Now before they go farther, Jesus will lay out what it means to join him on this journey in the Beatitudes.

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, writing in Rejoice and Be Glad, tells us “The Beatitudes are like a Christian’s identity card. So, if anyone asks: ‘What must one do to be a good Christian?’ the answer is clear.” Like the first twelve disciples, we are to embrace and live the Beatitudes. On our life journey of faith we will mourn, face persecution and insult, be called to align ourselves with the poor, hunger and thirst for righteousness, show mercy on others, be pure of heart and bring peace. In these Christian attitudes, we proclaim our identity as Christ followers.

Throughout the church year we celebrate the lives of the saints whose names are known to us. In a special way today’s celebration is for the saints whose names are not known beyond their family, friends or community—our own “personal” saints who have impacted our lives, people who are now in heaven and joined to us in the Mystical Body of Christ, the Communion of Saints. From the Book of Revelation, we know that these holy men and women are not isolated to a particular “nation, race or people, or language; instead they reflect the beautiful diversity of the human family

Stay safe and stay connected to your church family.

UPCOMING BAPTISM!

We are pleased to ask your prayers for the family of

Mia Nakia Wallace, daughter of Tony Wallace and Sherita Clark, who will be baptized on November 21st.*

We are grateful that her parents have made the commitment to bring Mia into the Church through Baptism. Our faith teaches us: “Baptism, the door to life and to the Kingdom, is the first Sacrament, which Christ offered to all that they might have eternal life and which, together with the Gospel, he later commanded his Apostles: ‘Go, teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.’” Baptism is the sacrament by which we are incorporated into the Church and are built up together into a dwelling place of in the Holy Spirit.
