Coming in October – Adult Faith Formation Studies

Our parish will be offering an adult faith studies program beginning in October. This will be a one hour weekly program held in the parish cafeteria beginning at 9:00 a.m. for one hour.

Many women and men in the parish have indicated an interest for a religion studies program and many men, due to schedules, cannot attend the Men's Fellowship program on Friday mornings. So, this is a way to satisfy both of these groups. We will of course continue the men's Friday morning fellowship sessions.

There are many great DVD programs on studying the Bible, Knowing what Catholics believe, Understanding the Sacraments, and much more. The format of each hour will be a 30 minute DVD presentation followed by group discussion.

Watch for more details in the coming weeks.

Event Date: October 2-11

For the Heart of Texas Fair in Waco each year, Pro-Life Waco delivers a popular booth with pro-life posters, flyers, jewelry, baby models, and balloons the children love. We need volunteers to work 1 to 3 hour shifts. This is a very enjoyable outreach. If you can help, call Doel Garcia at 254-424-1967.

KJZT JUNIORS TO CLEAN AT ST. MARY'S CEMETERY ON SATURDAY, OCT. 11, 2014 KJZT Juniors will be cleaning at the St. Mary's Cemetery on Saturday, October 11, 2014 after the Rosary Rally. Junior members will go to the cemetery to clean and we will have adults to power wash monuments. You will have to call to give permission to do this, so please call Betty Kostecka 826-5565 or Theresa Plsek 867-1973 and give us the Section and Row Number and the names on the monuments. Any other young people or adults who want to join us are welcomed. After we get through cleaning, we will go to Pizza House for pizza.

Catholic Social Teaching Corner

The Gospel this Sunday seems to contradict everything Catholic teaching offers about just wages and fairness. However the point of the Gospel is not just wages, it is God's generosity toward all of us, even those of us who get serious about accepting the invitation to "working in the vineyard" later in our lives. God's generosity is an inspiration for us to practice both justice and charity. Justice means that we give to every person what is due to them as a child of God. Charity goes beyond justice by loving others and giving beyond what justice requires because of that love. We are loved much and therefore should love greatly in turn. Who needs love this week from me?

Rachel's Reflections – Rachel's Reflections -- "If we know how great is the love of Jesus for us, we will never be afraid to go to Him in all our poverty, all our weakness, all our spiritual wretchedness and infirmity. Indeed, when we understand the true nature of His love for us, we will prefer to come to Him poor and helpless. We can be glad of our helplessness when we really believe that His power is made perfect in our infirmity."
- Thomas Merton

If you or someone you know has experienced an abortion, we can help. Please contact Project Rachel at (877) WE CARE 2 or project- relate to God on our terms rather than to accept God's radically different ways.

Background on the Gospel Reading In today's Gospel, Jesus moves from Galilee to teach in Judea where He is sought out by great crowds and tested by the Pharisees on issues such as marriage and divorce. Jesus also encounters a rich young man who is unable to accept Jesus' demand that He leave his possessions to follow him. Jesus' response to the rich young man sounds very much like the conclusion we will find in today's Gospel: the first will be last and the last will be first. On the surface, the parable of the workers in the vineyard appears to be an offense to common sense. Those who work a longer day ought to be paid more than those who work just an hour or two. When viewed in this way, the landowner seems unfair. That is because we are reading into the parable our own preconceived notions of how fairness and equality should be quantified. A close read shows us that the landowner paid on the terms that were negotiated. The landowner, it seems, has acted completely justly. The parable goes beyond that, however, and we come to see that the landowner is not simply just, he is exceptionally just. He is radically just. He has given those who labored in the field for a full day their due pay. But he has also given a full-day's wage to those who worked only a single hour. No one is cheated, but a few receive abundantly from the landowner just as we receive from God more than what is merely justifiable or due. God, like the landowner, is radically just and abundantly generous. The workers who complain are made to look foolish as they lament the fact that landowner has made all workers equal. Indeed, what more could one ask for than to be treated as an equal at work or anywhere else? The parable reminds us that although God owes us nothing, he offers abundantly and equally. We are occasionally tempted to think that our own actions deserve more reward, more of God's abundant mercy, than the actions of others. But God's generosity cannot be quantified or partitioned into different amounts for different people. When we think that way, we are trying to
