CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING CORNER -- This Sunday we celebrate the Dedication of the Basilica of St. John Lateran in Rome. In celebrating this feast we are not honoring a building, but ourselves as "living stones" that make the Church; the Body of Christ; the temple of God laid on the foundation of Jesus Christ. Our call is to reflect the holiness of God to the world, not the worldliness that invaded the Temple in Jerusalem at the time of Jesus – which he drove out. Are we living like Jesus, reaching out to the forgotten and unloved? Are we loving like Jesus showing compassion, forgiveness and mercy? What can we do to reflect the holiness of God more fully this week?

DRACHEL'S REFLECTIONS offers hope and healing to those suffering because of a past abortion. It is a compassionate and confidential ministry that helps women and men experience spiritual and emotional healing within the context of a Christian friendship. Through Project Rachel, volunteers are trained to accompany those suffering on their personal journey to the healing sacrament of reconciliation; and the church opens her arms wide by offering them a safe place to be reconciled with God and the loss of their children. Spiritual direction, support groups, private professional counseling, and weekend healing retreats led by a priest are all available through Project Rachel. Interested in volunteering? An informational meeting is planned for Nov. 12 at 6:30 p.m. at the diocesan Pastoral Center in Austin. Call (512) 949-2486 to register or for more information.
