Catholic Social Teaching Corner

Whom do we follow and to whose voice do we listen? This Sunday as we continue to unpack the meaning of our Baptism, we hear Jesus call Himself the Good Shepherd whose sheep hear His voice and follow His lead. That way of Jesus, is the way of love and unity. We are truly blessed to be loved so much and because we have been given so much, we must in turn live lives of generous love toward all. Are there some in our world we believe are undeserving of love or respect or generosity? Jesus gave his life for them, how shall we respond?

Family Connection

The Good Shepherd makes sacrifices for the sheep, not because it is required, but because it is a choice. That sounds a lot like parenting and the dynamics of a healthy family life. Parents choose to make sacrifices for their children out of love, not obligation. Christian parents model and invite their children to choose to make sacrifices for other family members and for other people, acting out of love rather than obligation.

When you gather as a family, invite each family member to consider the attitude that permeates their participation in family life. Read a common examen, such as any of the following: Do we do family chores cheerfully and without having to be asked multiple times? Do we gladly share with others? Do we willingly contribute to the family good when asked? Read aloud today's Gospel, John 10:11-18. Discuss together how the example of the Good Shepherd might inspire your family life. Invite each family member to make a renewed commitment to one action/attitude to focus on in the upcoming week that show that we will choose to follow the example of the Good Shepherd. Pray together that we will be able to honor our commitment. Pray together Saint Ignatius of Loyola's Prayer for Generosity.

THE MCLENNAN-HILL CHAPTER of the Czech Heritage Society will be presenting "The Heart of the Tin Trunk," a musical play movie about Czech immigrants to 19th century Texas and their modern day descendants.

The program will be presented at the West High School Auditorium on May 4, at 7 p.m. Admission is Free! The public is cordially invited. Point of contact: John E. Blaha, Jr., 254-707-0274.
