

Which week of the Liturgical Year

date

LEADER: write introduction to the Mass

Example Good Morning (Evening) Today St. Paul urges us to “Be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord.” Let us begin this celebration by singing together:

Pick Song

PRIEST: write introduction and penitential rite

Example - Jesus tells us today, “A good tree does not bear rotten, not does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit.” For the times we have failed to produce good fruit we ask for pardon and mercy.

LJ, you conquer sin and death, LHM

CJ, you are Son of the Most High, CHM

LJ, you lead us to wisdom, CHM

Choose Service Music or musicians choice

INTERCESSIONS write priest’s intro and the petitions and closing

PRIEST: write the introduction read by priest Example Heeding Jesus’ call to repentance, we humbly voice our petitions, trusting in God’s never-ending mercy.

LECTOR: Write 6 or 7 petitions

PRIEST: write the closing

Example Gracious God, all that we have is a gift from you. May we tend and cultivate these gifts so they might bear abundant fruit for the glory of your name. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Choose songs

OFFERTORY SONG:

COMMUNION SONG:

CLOSING SONG: