Affordable Housing is a basic life necessity that Catholic Charities is committed to supporting.

Catholic Charities Housing offers safe and affordable accommodation for families, seniors and adults with disabilities.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES HOUSING
Inspired by the Gospel message, and the Catholic Social Teaching of the Church, Catholic Charities Housing strives to provide affordable, equal housing opportunities to qualified residents in developments that are beautiful, orderly, and sustainable.

We welcome qualified tenants without regard to race, age, religion, color, creed, gender, sexual orientation, familial status, or the presence of any mental or physical disability.

Catholic Charities Housing manages four properties, including Ecumenical Tower, Kennedy Park West, and Carter Plaza in Dubuque and Alabar Plaza in Waterloo, with a total of 181 apartment units among the four locations.

ECUMENICAL TOWER
Ecumenical Tower is an 88 unit, senior/disabled adult apartment complex located in downtown Dubuque. Tenants of Ecumenical Tower must be at least 62 years old or live with a long-term disability. Tenants pay 30% of their annual adjusted gross income for rent.* Rent includes all utilities except cable and telephone services.

Property features: coin operated laundry facilities in each building, off street parking, large green space (site covers 5 acres), playground equipment and 24 hour answering service.

KENNEDY PARK WEST
Kennedy Park West is a 73 unit, 1-3 bedroom, family apartment complex located on Dubuque’s west end. Property is located near public transportation, Eisenhower Elementary School and shopping. Kennedy Park West is served by Roosevelt Middle School and Hempstead High School districts.
