Letter From Fr. Curtis

Dear Parishioners,
 Welcome back! It's a joy to be able to be back with you in church. Thank you for your faithfulness during these difficult past few months. I have been amazed to see many acts of kindness that many of you performed for each other and our community. Thank you especially to those who donated to our parish food shelf. It has helped many people during this hard time.

This weekend, we celebrate Most Holy Trinity Sunday, our parish feast day. Being able to come together for Mass on this weekend is a wonderful way to celebrate this special day. In acknowledgement of this day, here is a prayer to offer today in honor of the Holy Trinity:

Prayer to the Holy Trinity

*Glory be to the Father,
 Who by His almighty power and love created
 me,
 making me in the image and likeness of God.
 Glory be to the Son,
 Who by His Precious Blood delivered me
 from hell,
 and opened for me the gates of heaven.
 Glory be to the Holy Spirit,
 Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism,
 and continues to sanctify me
 by the graces I receive daily from His bounty.
 Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity,
 now and forever. Amen.*

As we return to Mass, it's important for us to remember to take precautions to protect each other's health, especially by wearing masks at Mass, using hand sanitizer regularly, and maintaining six feet from each other. Most importantly, let's continue praying for each other, and treating each other with love and respect. Have a blessed week, Fr. Curtis

Thank you for mailing in or dropping off your offertory envelopes to the rectory!

1354 In the anamnesis that follows, the Church calls to mind the Passion, resurrection, and glorious return of Christ Jesus; she presents to the Father the offering of his Son which reconciles us with him.

In the intercessions, the Church indicates that the Eucharist is celebrated in communion with the whole Church in heaven and on earth, the living and the dead, and in communion with the pastors of the Church, the Pope, the diocesan bishop, his presbyterium and his deacons, and all the bishops of the whole world together with their Churches.

1355 In the communion, preceded by the Lord's prayer and the breaking of the bread, the faithful receive "the bread of heaven" and "the cup of salvation," the body and blood of Christ who offered himself "for the life of the world":

Because this bread and wine have been made Eucharist ("eucharisted," according to an ancient expression), "we call this food Eucharist, and no one may take part in it unless he believes that what we teach is true, has received baptism for the forgiveness of sins and new birth, and lives in keeping with what Christ taught."

Some Notes from Bishop Coyne on the Reopening of Public Masses:

It is with an abundance of joy and gratitude that I announce the first phase of the reopening of our churches to celebrate daily and Sunday Mass beginning June 1.

The obligation to attend Sunday Mass remains lifted until further notice, especially if you are part of a vulnerable population and/or have an underlying health condition.

Please approach the celebration of Mass with charity and love for our clergy and faith community by following the protocols:

- Stay home if you are sick or not feeling well.
- Wear a mask in Mass.
- Sanitize your hands upon entry. Due to shortages of sanitizer, please bring your own if possible.
- Sit in designated pews and respect social distance between others of 6 feet or more unless you are one family unit.
- Refrain from congregating in tight areas or entering cordoned off areas.
- Follow the protocols to receive Holy Communion as directed at Mass.
- Follow your church protocols regarding registration if necessary due to the 25% capacity limit.

For more details about church protocols visit: vermontcatholic.org/covid-19

While these protocols are intrusive, they are necessary as they allow us to celebrate the Sacraments in person while doing our part to help stop the spread of coronavirus.

Looking forward to seeing some of you "live" at Mass again, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Christopher J. Coyne
