Ministers of Hospitality / Ushers

The Ministers of Hospitality are responsible for ensuring a welcoming and comfortable environment in the Celebration of the Eucharist and other ceremonies. Assignments are once or twice a month (depending on staffing). Duties include greeting worshippers, taking collections, seeing to an orderly Eucharist reception, dispersing weekly bulletins, etc. Ministers of Hospitality are required for all Masses.

The typical duties of a St. Elizabeth's Usher as described by one of our own ushers:

Greet parishioners as they enter the church

Make sure candles are lit on altar

Check to see if any reserved seating is requested for the Mass, particularly by CCD teachers and classes.

Obtain name(s) of gift bearers and give to lector

Be sure there are enough hosts (Ask Fr Stan about supply of Consecrated Hosts in the Tabernacle)

Handle collections and Special collections when noted

Hand out bulletins after Mass

Be ready to set up chairs in vestibule for overcrowded Masses

Hand out palms on Palm Sunday

Check heating/air conditioning, or open doors if required on the side

Assist parishioners with questions or refer them to office or Fr Stan if available.

Those eligible:
