14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We Catholics of Blessed Sacrament, Sacred Heart, and St. Eugene Parishes of Western Oklahoma gather as community to continue the mission of Jesus Christ. We Praise the Lord. We proclaim the Good News. We celebrate the sacramental life of faith. We serve others as Jesus taught us. As disciples we follow the Lord and invite others to come walk with us.

PARISH EXCESS "GAMES ETC"

There are games and related items that are still good to use, for which the parish no longer has a purpose. Any parishioner may take what they want at no charge. Please visit the office before you take anything.

NEED YOUR HELP! The parish office has photos of the 2007 First Communion Class and 2007 Confirmation Class. If you have a child that was in either of the two classes, please come to the office and help the parish staff identify the youth in the photos. Anyone attending Mass at St. Eugene's during that time is also welcomed to help identify the members in the classes. Just call the office at 580-772-3209.

JULY VOCATION INTERCESSION: That the lived faith of our families may inspire many sons and daughters to dedicate their lives to serving God's people, we pray to the Lord.

CATHOLIC COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGN

Through websites, social networks, television, radio, and print, the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) helps the Church spread the Gospel message through the media. Half of all donations to the CCC stay in our archdiocese to support local communications needs, such as radio and television programming and diocesan publications.

CCC funds support communications projects in developing areas of the world where the church is growing but lacking in resources.

The Catholic Communication Campaign helps connect people at home and abroad with Christ.

ROTHER SHRINE WEBCAM

A new live webcam allows viewers to watch the Blessed Stanley Rother Shrine construction! The webcam will be live streaming throughout the project. Watch at: archokc.org/shrinewebcam.

DISPLAY OF FLAGS IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES:

Surprisingly to many, there are no regulations of any kind governing the display of flags in Roman Catholic Churches. Neither the Code of Canon law, nor the liturgical books of the Roman rite comment on this practice. As a result, the question of whether and how to display the American flag in a Catholic Church is left up to the judgment of the diocesan bishop, who in turn often delegates this to the discretion of the pastor.

The display of the American flag appears to have its origins in the offering of prayers for those who served during the Second World War (1941-1945). At that time, many bishops and pastors provided a book of remembrance near the American flag, requesting prayers for loved ones serving their country in the armed forces. It was a way of focusing on the needs of military families. The practice has continued in many places during the Korean, Viet Nam and Iraqi conflicts.

The Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy has encouraged pastors not to place the flag within the sanctuary itself, but to reserve that space for the altar, the ambo, the presidential chair and the tabernacle. Instead, the suggestion has been made that the American flag be placed outside the sanctuary, or in the vestibule of the Church together with a book of prayer requests. It remains, however, for the diocesan bishop to determine regulations in this matter.

Remember in Your Prayers

Everyone Affected by the Coronavirus Throughout the World

Compassionate and Loving Father,

In the face of confusion and concern, impart to us the calm of Your presence.

In You allow us to find hope and healing.

Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.

Be with those who lead and give them Your spirit of wisdom.

Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.

Wrap Your arms around our world and hold us in Your love.

Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love to all we meet.

We ask this in Your Name.

Amen
