4th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

FEAST DAY OF ST. JOHN BOSCO, JANUARY 31: Saint John Bosco was an Italian priest, teacher, and writer in the 19th century who devoted his life to helping the most vulnerable children and youth receive an education. He was the founder of the Salesian community, one of the most important Catholic religious communities in the world today.

Born in 1815 in Italy, his childhood was marked by the death of his father. Because of this loss, he had to work hard from an early age, which prevented him from pursuing formal schooling when he was young, despite how much he desired to study. Likely, his own struggle to receive an education prompted his eagerness to ensure all children had access to a good education.

In 1841, he was ordained and dedicated his life to creating educational institutions for disadvantaged children. We can see the fruits of his labor in the ongoing efforts of today's Salesian community, which actively works in schools and parishes in more than one hundred countries throughout the world. Saint John Bosco was canonized in 1934.

San Juan Bosco fue un sacerdote, maestro escritor italiano en el siglo XIX que dedicó su vida ayudar a los niños y jóvenes más vulnerables a recibir educación. Fundador de la Comunidad Salesiana, una de las comunidades religiosas católicas más importantes del mundo en la actualidad.

Nació en 1815 en Italia, su infancia estuvo marcada por la muerte de su padre. Debido a esta pérdida, tuvo que trabajar duro desde temprana edad, lo que le impidió seguir estudiando formalmente cuando era joven a pesar de lo mucho que deseaba estudiar. Probablemente, su propia lucha por recibir una educación generó en él un entusiasmo por garantizar que todos los niños tuvieran acceso a una Buena educación.

En 1841, fue ordenado sacerdote y dedicó su vida a crear instituciones educativas para niños que no tuviesen la oportunidad de acceder a una educación formal. Podemos ver los frutos de su labor en los esfuerzos continuos que a comunidad salesiana siguen haciendo hoy en día, con su trabajo en escuelas y parroquias en más de cien países del mundo. San Juan Bosco fue canonizado en 1934.
