Meade-Breck Right to Life

The Meade-Breck Right to Life Chapter will be meeting on June 18 at 7 pm ET in the Parish Hall at Holy Guardian Angel, Irvington, KY. Won't you please consider joining Meade-Breck Right to Life, helping to continue the work of being a voice for the voiceless, and taking on a leadership role in your parish? Contact Nancy Tate via 270-750-1057 for more information.

Meade-Breck Right to Life is a grassroots organization. We are an affiliate of Kentucky Right to Life Association. Our mission is to promote respect for the sanctity of all innocent human life from fertilization until natural death. We accomplish this by legally educating all members of the public to the truth of the dignity and worth of each human life and to the issues pertaining to this truth.

Are you a Catholic in a medical field?

We are in the beginning stages of starting a Catholic Medical Association "guild" in the Diocese of Owensboro. Anyone in any medical profession is able to be a member, but it takes three active physicians to start the guild. CMA Guilds provide fellowship, education, opportunities to serve the local Church and public, and a base for physicians, healthcare professionals, medical students and residents to find guidance, education, mutual support, service, and witness. Read more at www.cathmed.org. Contact Danny May or Deacon Richard Murphy if you are interested. 270-683-1545.

PRAYER AND SPIRITUALITY

GOSPEL MEDITATION

June 9, 2019
Pentecost Sunday

Remembering and Praying for the Deceased

Walter Manning, Alfred Jarboe, Terry Smith, Joe Hess, Bucky Barr, Charles Maurice Payne, Ricky Brooks, Hubert Greenwood, Donnie Vessels, Brenda Sills Kelley, Keith "Butch" Androski, Rudy Brumfield, Sr., William Kannapel, Helen Fentress, Dorothy Jackson

We will keep a name on this list for a year from the time of their death. If you have a family member not of this parish and you would like to have their name listed please call the office (270-756-2356).

Let us continue to pray for ALL Families who have lost loved ones. May Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

We have Journals and Resource Books available in the Church Office for anyone wishing to pick one up.

Care Notes are available at the main entrance of the Church. Feel free to take which ever meets your needs.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Dorothy Jackson, (George Walz's sister). You are in our thoughts and prayers.

"God is always more." Have you ever heard that? If we truly believe that He is infinite, then this statement is worth exploring. Today, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit in power upon the early Church. But Pentecost wasn't the first time the disciples received the Holy Spirit. The Gospel actually occurs chronologically before Pentecost. Soon after the Resurrection, Jesus already "came and stood in their [the disciples'] midst... he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'"

God is always more. Sometimes we might think the grace of God as one and done. God might break through in people's lives, but it's a one-time event on a retreat or preceding a dramatic conversion of life. But there's always more to come. Even today's Gospel isn't the first time the breath of God stirred. In Genesis, it's God's breath that stirs life into Adam in the garden. Jesus breathes on the Apostles, giving them the Holy Spirit in the quiet and silence. Later, that breath will stir into a "driving wind", and the Spirit will descend with flame...not unlike Moses on Mount Sinai.

God is always more. He has spoken throughout salvation history, and continues to speak into our lives through His Church and through the Holy Spirit alive in our hearts. This Pentecost Sunday, let us come before Him with expectant hearts! Like the disciples in the Gospel and first reading, let us await what "more" God will do.
