Dear Parishioners,

We hope you and your families are staying safe and well. Thanks to all who are currently using or who have recently enrolled in the eGiving program, as well as those who have continued to use envelopes.

Although we are currently unable to celebrate Mass together, the expenses of the parish have continued throughout this unprecedented time. The eGiving program is offered through the Parish and can be used as a convenient way to help you maintain your contributions during this time. Set up is quick and easy and there is flexibility with payment options and timing. A secure and convenient overview of this program can be found at sfdslenni.org/egiving. A toll free contact number is also available at the bottom of the page for any questions that you may have.

We thank you for your continued generosity and support of Saint Francis de Sales Parish, and we look forward to the time when we are once again able to be together as a community.

May God continue to bless all of you and your families.

In Christ,

Rev. Alan J. Okon, Jr. Pastor

April 19, 2020 – Second Sunday of Easter & Divine Mercy

How many times have you thought to yourself, or said to others those three little words: “I doubt it”? The subject could be the candidate for the upcoming presidential election; or a claim by an auto dealer that none of the cars on his/her lot have any hidden markups; or the suddenly positive rating a man gives his spouse of her meatloaf. On and on such a list could go, revolving around those three little words. Doubt can be a good thing if it fosters questions especially of complicated corollaries of our faith. The doubter here is only probing deeper into his/her faith wanting a mature answer. Lingering doubt in matters of revealed faith can be a serious problem if it is not relieved either by the direct answer of a qualified expert or good private research. Our faith has nothing to fear from sound reason.

All of this brings us to the problem of doubt that Saint Thomas had. Unfortunately, his healthy doubts got him a sad nickname that developed into a cliché, that of “Doubting Thomas.” In time, it became a popular description of anyone who questions what we tell them. Thomas represents many people in this cynical era, so in love with science and technology, as to be always wanting tangible proof before believing anything. Add the disregard many have for the supernatural, and you have the general mood of the times. So when the best of the Good News of the Gospel – the Resurrection – is presented to Thomas, his nature kicks in and he reacts: “I’ll never believe it.”

A week after this (I wonder if Thomas’ attitude changed over 7 days) Jesus reappears in His glorified Body. I imagine Him looking a wee bit stern as He calls Thomas over so that the doubter could literally probe the five scars left on that body. But I also picture a gentle smile crosses Jesus’ holy face as Thomas kneels before Him and he makes that profound act of beautiful faith: “My Lord and My God.” I can see Jesus helping Thomas up and then offering him a heartfelt hug. For all my years since ordination I have used Thomas’ words as my own as I elevate the Sacred Host at Mass.

Jesus then offers a mild rebuke to Thomas and to us, followed by one of the most consoling sentences in all of Scripture: “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.” Talk about Divine Mercy! Here is that very grace poured out on an intelligent apostle, whose faith would propel him to preach about Jesus even to the people of far away India! Such great encouragement to us who have not seen but have believed! That blessing of Jesus is itself part of the very same mercy we celebrate on this Divine Mercy Sunday; Pope Saint John Paul II fostered this devotion because his own strong faith told him the world needs it.

Allow me to close with a description of a “Peanuts” cartoon. Picture Lucy looking out the window at a steady downpour of rain. “Boy,” she said, “look at that rain. What if it floods the whole world?”

“It will never do that,” Linus replied confidently. “In the ninth chapter of Genesis, God promised Noah that that would never happen again, and the sign of the promise is the rainbow.”

“You’ve taken a great load off my mind,” said Lucy with a relieved smile. “Sound theology,” pontificated Linus, “has a way of doing that!”

Well, I for one don’t doubt it. Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

May 3, 2020 is World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

While we are not meeting in church these weeks, We encourage you to continue your participation in the life of our Church and parish, especially by praying for vocations:

- What Can I Do? Video by Gino DiMattia, Serra Club of Lima, OH, which imagines a parish with no priest to celebrate Mass
- Pope Francis' Message for the 2020 World Day of Prayer for Vocations
- The following prayer for WDPV, from the National Religious Vocation Conference website:

Holy Spirit, stir within us the passion to promote vocations to the consecrated life, societies of apostolic life, diocesan priesthood, and permanent diaconate.

Inspire us daily to respond to Your call with boundless compassion, abundant generosity, and radical availability.

Help us to remember our own baptismal call to rouse us to invite the next generation to hear and respond to Your call.

Inspire parents, families, and lay ecclesial ministers to begin a conversation with young Catholics to consider a how they will live lives of holiness and sacred service.

Nudge inquirers and motivate discerners to learn more about monastic life, apostolic life, missionaries, cloistered contemplative life, and evangelical Franciscan life.

Ignite our Church with the confident humility that there is an urgent need for religious sisters, brothers, deacons, and priests to live in solidarity with those who are poor, neglected, and marginalized.

Disrupt our comfortable lives and complacent attitudes with new ideas to respond courageously and creativity with a daily 'YES!' Amen.

In response to the Coronavirus Pandemic, CFGP (Catholic Foundation of Greater Philadelphia) has established the Emergency Relief

Fund (ERF) to provide a quick response to the emergency needs of the community within the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. This includes food pantries, vital social service ministries and organizations, and local parishes that are working to address the emergency needs of their community. This is a difficult time for many, and we want to do our part to help those who have been impacted by COVID-19. At this time, CFGP's ERF will be raising funds specifically for Catholic Social Services (CSS) food pantries.

In the last two weeks alone, our community, our country and the world have witnessed school and business closures, job layoffs, food insecurity, widespread illness, and in the most extreme cases, death. This is a time of great uncertainty, but if we lean on one another, work collaboratively, and keep God at the forefront of our work, we will get through this.

We are now accepting donations to the Emergency Relief Fund. Please visit www.TheCFGP.org/ERF to donate. On behalf of CFGP and all those we serve, we thank you for supporting our neighbors in need.

O Lord, hear my prayer, and let my cry come to you.

O Lord, hear my prayer for those most at risk.

For those whose age and medical condition make them more vulnerable.

For those who are without a home, who live on our streets, who rely on social services to meet their daily needs.

For those whose jobs are at risk.

For the migrants and refugees around the world who are already fleeing for their safety.

O Lord, hear my prayer for those on the frontlines of response.

For the nurses, doctors, and medical professionals who show up everyday with energy, compassion, and resilience for the work of care ahead of them.

For the grocery store workers and truck drivers keeping shelves stocked.

For home care providers, stay-at-home and work-from-home parents.

For mail carriers and package deliverers.

O Lord, hear my prayer for leaders making difficult and important decisions.

For leaders of countries, states, and cities.

For leaders of faith communities and places of worship.

For leaders of schools, daycares, and social services.

For leaders of businesses, small and large.

For leaders of hospitals, nursing homes, and clinics.

O Lord, hear my prayer for those who suffer.

For those who are sick, for those who face death because of this virus.

For those who suffer loneliness, depression, anxiety, and isolation.

For those who have lost their jobs.

For all of us, because in one way or another, we are all suffering right now.

O Lord, hear my prayer for all those who have died from this virus.

For their loved ones who mourn their death.

O Lord, hear my prayer for the end of this global pandemic.

O Lord, hear my prayer for relief, healing, hope, and protection.

O Lord, hear my prayer, and let my cry come to you.
