Pentecost Sunday June 9, 2019

Dear St. George,
 I am so happy to announce that our very own, Lee Volmer, has decided to enter into the seminary this fall for the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. He will be attending Kenrick Seminary in St. Louis. As a parish we could not be prouder of Lee as he goes to discern his vocation to the priesthood. It is such an awesome thing for a parish to have a seminarian. At daily Mass we always pray for an increase of vocations for our parish and he has answered our prayers! I am sure that we will have a send off party at some point during this summer. God bless Lee!

Peace,
 Fr. Bryan

Come to Us, Spirit of Holiness

Holy Spirit,
 you banish fear from our hearts;
 you bear witness in us that we are children of God; we pray to you:

Remove from our hearts the spirit of slaves; place in us the spirit of adopted children to make us cry out, "Abba, Father!"

Pentecost

Unless the eye catch fire,
 God will not be seen.
 Unless the ear catch fire,

 Unless the tongue catch fire,

 Unless the heart catch fire,

Pentecost SundayJune 9, 2019

In today's first reading we encounter the Holy Spirit who at Pentecost came rushing in over Jesus' followers like a powerful wind. It must have been a frightening experience for them. But their great acts of prophetic witness began when the Spirit drew them out of their "comfort zones." Jesus said the Holy Spirit, like the wind, blows where it wills; into the lives of good stewards, empowering them to perform wondrous acts of healing, reconciliation and evangelization; encouraging them to proclaim the Gospel with boldness and confidence. All of that is a little beyond the comfort zone where most of us live our lives. This week, reflect on how the Holy Spirit may be calling you out of your personal comfort zone.
