Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 13, 2019

Dear St. George and St. Jude,

Today we begin week 2 of our Journey into the Deep. The topic is divine revelation. Slowly throughout the history of the world God has revealed to us the wonder of who He is. He has revealed slowly, that He is a god, He is the only God, and finally in Jesus Christ he is fully revealed as a trinity making Him Love itself. He has revealed this to us because he desires to be our friend and to be united with Him forever. This week I encourage you to start carving out time in your schedule to spend with Him even if it is 10, 20, or 30 minutes a day. Speak to Him about your hopes, dreams, struggles, hardships, and whatever you'd like to say. We can only come to know God more through prayer just like we can only come to know a friend better by spending time with them. God bless and have a great week!

Stay Holy St. George and St. Jude,

Fr. Bryan

Stewardship Prayer for October

Gracious and Loving God

We give you thanks for this time of year;
a time of transformation that reveals the awe-inspiring gift of your creation.

Teach us how to be good stewards of all the gifts you have given us; and show us how we may share those gifts generously, especially with those most in need of your loving care.

Give us the strength to be good stewards of the Gospel, to love others as we love ourselves, and to follow in your Son's footsteps, until we find our way home to you.

We pray this through your Son, Jesus Christ,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.

Amen

Stewardship Saint for October

St. Theresa of the Child Jesus, or Theresa of Lisieux

Saint Theresa of the Child Jesus, or Theresa of Lisieux, is a model stewardship saint because of her simple and practical way of life. Better known as the “Little Flower,” Theresa was an extremely popular saint in the first half of the twentieth century. Born in France in 1873 to a very pious family, Marie Françoise Therese Martin became a Carmelite nun at Lisieux, France, at the age of fifteen. She dedicated her life to growing in holiness in a very simple and straightforward way. She meditated on the Sacred Scriptures as well as the writings of famous saints such as Teresa of Avila, Francis de Sales and John of the Cross. She was faithful to the Carmelite Rule and the rhythm of daily life and worship in her religious community. Theresa believed that authentic holiness could be grasped by anyone. It was not just a pious ideal available only to clergy and religious.

In 1895 she suffered the initial stages of tuberculosis, the disease that eventually caused her death. And in the last two years of her life she remained at Lisieux and wrote a spiritual autobiography, The Story of a Soul, which became immensely popular and was translated into several languages after her death. She made a well-known promise to spend her life in heaven continuing to do good works on earth, “as long as there were souls to be saved.” She said she would let fall a “shower of roses” from heaven.

St. Theresa died in 1897 at the age of 24. She was canonized in 1925, an amazingly short length of time since her death. She was declared a Doctor of the Church by Saint John Paul II in 1997. Theresa of Lisieux is the patron saint of the missions, florists, aviators, and the countries France and Russia.
