What does the Catechism say about...?

“You Shall Love Your Neighbor as Yourself: The Fifth Commandment: You shall not kill.

480. What does the Lord ask of every person in regard to peace?

The Lord proclaimed ‘Blessed are the peacemakers’ (Matthew 5:9; emphasis added). He called for peace of heart and denounced the immorality of anger which is a desire for revenge for some evil suffered. He also denounced hatred which leads one to wish evil on one’s neighbor. These attitudes, if voluntary and consented to in matters of great importance, are mortal sins against charity.

481. What is peace in this world?

Peace in this world, which is required for the respect and development of human life, is not simply the absence of war or a balance of power between adversaries. It is ‘the tranquility of order’ (Saint Augustine), ‘the work of justice’ (Isaiah 32:17) and the effect of charity. Earthly peace is the image and fruit of the peace of Christ.

482. What is required for earthly peace?

Earthly peace requires the equal distribution and safeguarding of the goods of persons, free communication among human beings, respect for the dignity of persons and peoples, and the assiduous practice of justice and fraternity.

483. When is it morally permitted to use military force?

The use of military force is morally justified [a.k.a. “Just War Theory”] when the following conditions are simultaneously present:
1) the suffering inflicted by the aggressor must be lasting, grave and certain; 2) all other peaceful means must have been shown to be ineffective; 3) there are well founded prospects of success; 4) the use of arms, especially given the power of modern weapons of mass destruction, must not produce evils graver than the evil to be eliminated.

484. In danger of war, who has the responsibility for the rigorous evaluation of these conditions?

This responsibility belongs to the prudential judgment of government officials who also have the right to impose on citizens the obligation of national defense. The personal right to conscientious objection makes an exception to this obligation which should then be carried out by another form of service to the human community.”

Summary of paragraphs 2302-2305 and 2307-2310 of the Catechism as found in the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
