Prayer for Lent

Lord Jesus, after you had told the disciples of your coming Death, on the holy mountain you manifested to them your glory, to show, even by the testimony of the law and the prophets, that the Passion leads to the glory of the Resurrection. Bless your faithful, we pray, O Lord, with a blessing that endures forever, and keep them faithful to the Gospel of your Only Begotten Son, so that they may always desire and at last attain that glory whose beauty he showed in his own Body, to the amazement of his Apostles. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

What does the Catechism say about...?

“544. How does Jesus teach us to pray?”

Jesus teaches us to pray not only with the Our Father but also when he prays. In this way he teaches us, in addition to the content, the dispositions necessary for every true prayer: purity of heart that seeks the Kingdom and forgives one's enemies, bold and filial faith that goes beyond what we feel and understand, and watchfulness that protects the disciple from temptation.

545. Why is our prayer efficacious?

Our prayer is efficacious because it is united in faith with the prayer of Jesus. In him Christian prayer becomes a communion of love with the Father. In this way we can present our petitions to God and be heard: 'Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full' (John 16:24)."

Summary of paragraphs 2608-2616, and 2621 of the Catechism as found in the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
