

Pastor's Column

This week is National Vocational Awareness Week. God is calling many young men and women to serve him as priests and religious in our time, but we need to help them to hear the call.

How can we help? By praying for those who have a call. Pray that they might have the wisdom to hear the call and the courage to follow it no matter what the obstacles. Prayer in the Adoration Chapel this week should be specifically marked with an intention for vocations. Even if you aren't signed up for a regular hour, you might pop in for a bit and offer some prayer time for vocations.

Also, from time to time, the diocese and various religious orders have special events to help young people discern their vocation. You might think of encouraging young people whom you think may have a calling, to go to these events.

Together, let's pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life, especially from within our own parish and diocese.

Has the scandal affected vocations? The scandal has seemed to have affected everything at this point: Mass attendance, financial generosity towards the Church in many dioceses, numbers entering seminary this year, etc. But we should not let the sins of a small minority of clergy few pull down the devotion and fidelity of the many. Now, more than ever, we should pray for our Church, pray for holy vocations, and strive to be true disciples after the heart of Christ.

Also, recently it has come to my attention that many do not know how much the Church did in 2002 to create a new culture in the Church to prevent the abuse of children. The Pennsylvania report had very few incidents from 2002-present. The overwhelming majority were from before that time. Of course, unfortunately, as news of the priest in Athens county this past week reminded us, there is no completely failsafe way to protect everyone. However, a lot has been done in this area and next Sunday, in this column, I intend to list some of the ways that the Church changed since 2002.

In Christ,
Fr. Hahn

50+ Group Christmas Get-together – Those 50+ are invited to gather together for a Christmas celebration at a local restaurant. The group plans to meet following the 11:30 a.m. Mass on December 9. Suggestions for location being taken. Please let Barb Polans (740-773-9878) or Judy Kight (740-637-0617) know if you would like to attend and your vote for the restaurant.

Would anyone else like to help feed the hungry? We are in need of someone to transport a meal once every five weeks. You don't even have to make the food, but you will provide a blessing to many. Our St. Vincent de Paul Society is taking supper every Thursday to the Men's Homeless Shelter in Sherman Park, between 5:00-6:00 p.m. We serve nine men. We have four families doing it now, and one other family would like to participate. They can prepare the meal, but they cannot transport it, so if anyone can help by picking up the food on Carmel Drive, off of Charleston Pike, and take it to Sherman Park, it would be appreciated. If you are interested, or have questions, please call Connie Schaefer at 740-775-3550 or Mary Elsass at 740-703-8100. The Society needs reams of copy paper to use in their office. Due to the increase in number of clients, they are going through the paper quickly. Any assistance with this is greatly appreciated.

The Assistance House of Ross County is an agency in Ross County that is helping working families in need. Their funding relies only upon grants, trusts, and donations from the community. They are currently in need of funding for a new roof for the property and grant monies were reduced for this project and grants for client assistance have been reduced. We are currently accepting donations to send to The Assistance House to assist their clients and the roof project. You can make a check out to St. Peter and in the memo line put "The Assistance House." Of course, you can donate directly at any time to the Assistance House, a Ross County Association that is over 100 years old! If you would like additional information on the Assistance House, you can speak with Board Members from our parish (John Albright, Martha Greer, and Mary Elsass), or pick up a brochure in the Parish Office. May God continue to bless the work of this vital agency in the county!

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Divine Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.

“And ‘to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself’ is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.”
(MARK 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of love, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it’s more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

FEED THE HUNGRY

Presence to the Poor... Helping our St. Vincent de Paul Society with its mission is an excellent way to be a presence to the poor and to perform corporal works of mercy. Hope Clinic is also in need of various volunteers, especially nurses.

Feeding the Hungry – Donate items to the Food Pantry. Current needs are canned fruit, corn, and peas; pasta meals in pull-top cans; pasta sauce; cereal; tuna; peanut butter; and SOUP, or help with the Thursday meals for the Homeless Shelter.

Clothing the Naked – When you donate items to Goodwill, ask for a donation receipt and bring it to the St. Vincent de Paul Society. They are given credit for each bag of clothing given, which can be used to offset the cost of the vouchers they give to those in need of clothing.

Aims for the Poor – This can be accomplished by several means available here at St. Peter. Supporting the St. Vincent de Paul Society during its 5th Sunday Collections and using the monthly envelope. Support other local agencies such as the Assistance House, Love Inc., and the Good Samaritan Food Pantry with monetary donations.

"Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." – Matthew 25:40

Living the Liturgical Year

Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes

November 10:

St. Leo the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church

Pope Leo I, reigned in the early Church from 440 to 461. It was during his pontificate that the Council of Chalcedon (451) defined that Christ is one divine person with two natures, divine and human. This is called the doctrine of the hypostatic union and was directed specifically against the Eutychianism heresy. One of Leo's most notable moments during his time as pope was his confrontation with Attila the Hun in 452. Attila and his army had invaded Italy. These fierce warriors were intent on sacking and burning Rome. When they arrived, Pope Leo went out to Attila, unarmed and with God-given eloquence persuaded this ruthless killer to turn back and mercifully leave Rome alone. For more details about this story and a view of Raphael's painting depicting the encounter, go to <http://www.burnp.it.us/2015/07/pope-leo-i-convinces-attila-hun-not-sack-rome>.

Since Pope Leo is believed to be from Tuscany, Italy we thought this soup would be fitting with his fall feast day.

Zuppa Toscana

1 lb Italian sausage, casings removed	1 tsp. red pepper flakes (optional)
1 large white onion, diced	4 slices bacon
2 tsp. finely minced garlic	8 cups chicken stock
1 cup heavy cream	1/4 bunch kale (about 2 cups)
3 large potatoes, peeled and diced

Sauté sausage and red pepper flakes (if using) in large pot. Drain sausage and set aside. Discard fat. In same pot, sauté bacon, onions and garlic over medium heat or until onions are soft. Add chicken stock and bring to a boil. Add potatoes and cook until soft, about 1/2 hour. Reduce heat to low and add heavy cream and cook until heated through. Stir in cooked sausage and the kale and heat for 5 minutes. Serve with some crusty Italian bread. Buon appetito!

Prayer for the Intercession of St. Leo the Great

God our Father, You will never allow the powers of hell to prevail against Your Church, founded on the rock of the apostle Peter. Let the prayers of Pope Leo the Great keep us faithful to Your truth and secure in Your peace. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, on God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome: November 9

As the oldest and highest ranking of the four major Basilicas in Rome, St. John Lateran is the cathedral of the diocese of Rome, the official seat of the Bishop of Rome (the Pope!), not St. Peter's Basilica!
