Thank you to those who have reserved their spot for the Holy Land trip. We are so excited to say that we do not have to advertise outside our consortium to obtain enough pilgrims to fill two buses! We are also pleased to announce that a second priest will be going along to be the spiritual director for the second bus...Fr. Michael Hartge! If you are still interested in going on the pilgrimage, there is still time to get your deposit and reservation form in for the 2019 Holy Land Pilgrimage. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Jenny French at the Parish Office at 740-774-1407. If you have already turned in your paperwork, watch for Preparation Meetings to begin during the Lenten/Easter Season and don't forget to get your passport and get a copy to Jenny as soon as possible!

HELP FILL THE SHELVES OF THE FOOD PANTRY! Current needs of St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry include canned fruit, corn, peas, pasta meals in pull-top cans, pasta sauce, cereal, tuna, peanut butter, and SOUP.

HELP NEEDED: We currently have eight teams who rotate out cleaning/straightening up the church on either Friday evening or Saturday morning. However, due to retirement and work commitments, two of our teams are needing to resign. The teams can consist of as little as a single person to a family. If you would be interested in helping take over one of the teams to keep the rotation at every eight weeks, please contact Jenny French at 740-774-1407.

Council 15793 Grand Knight Bob Kight would like to thank everyone that helped provide a beautiful Christmas for the Veterans at the VA Hospital. The Knights and their families turned out in force to serve a turkey dinner, distribute the gift bags filled with personal care items donated by parishioners and knights, as well as entertain the group with Bingo. Thanks to Greg Fahnstock for helping to cook the dinner with the assistance of Columbus Councils.

A big thank-you to those who helped decorate and set up for the Christmas Masses. Many hands make the job light! We are especially grateful to John Albright, Kathy Dalton, the Brad Edwards Family, Bob French, Jenny French, Ann Hamm, Jess Hamm, Barbara Harsha, Bob Kight, Andrea McLean, Claudine Noel, Kim Noel, Annette Roth, Mary Rusk and Sr. Leonard Mary for their assistance!

SAVE THE DATE AND GET YOUR TEAM TOGETHER! Trivia Night 2019 is scheduled for Saturday, January 26, 2019 in the Parish Hall. Planning is beginning, contact Robin Flannagan if you would like to help with this fun event! This year's event is being brought to you by the Secular Franciscan Order to help raise money for their charitable works.

FORMED

THE CATHOLIC FAITH.
ON DEMAND.

PICK OF THE WEEK, January 6, 2019

Following up on his acclaimed Redeemer in the Womb, John Saward returns to the mystery of Christ's Incarnation. He draws upon the rich traditions of the Church, as well as the writings of the great Christian mystics, to create a work that is both new and old, revolutionary and orthodox. This profoundly moving meditation will aid any contemplation on the life of Christ. The subject of this book is the objective and divinely revealed truth of the Nativity of Christ, as proclaimed by His infallible and immaculate Bride. It is the splendor of this truth, of "Love's noon in Nature's night," which for two millennia has captivated the Fathers and Schoolmen, and activated the genius of poets, painters, and musicians. Illustrated with eight color paintings. Find this and more on the Formed website. Access Code VZ4F2W or download the free app for your phone!

The three kings in today's Gospel traveled a great distance at considerable cost to offer their richest gifts to the Infant Jesus. How far will I go and what will I offer to do homage to this newborn King and Savior?

Living the Liturgical Year

Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes

January 6: Feast of the Epiphany (or the Twelfth day of Christmas)

The Feast of the Epiphany commemorates the awakening of the whole world - Jew and Gentile - to the presence of the newborn Savior! Though there is much mystery surrounding the star and the Magi, the reason for their coming is simple, to show that Christ came to save all people. In the 7th century St. Bede wrote, "The first is said to have been Melchior... who offered gold to the Lord as to a king. The second, Caspar by name...honored Him as God by his gift of frankincense, an oblation worthy of divinity. The third...named Balthasar...by his gift of myrrh testified to the Son of Man who was to die." (from Celebrating a Merry Catholic Christmas by Fr. William Saunders)

An Epiphany custom is to mark the lintel of the front door with chalk with the inscription – for example, 20*C+M+B+19, which signifies 2019 for the year; C for Caspar, M for Melchior; and B for Balthasar; a star (*) for the star that guided the magi; and three crosses for the Holy Trinity! It is also suggested (and makes perfect sense) that C+M+B signifies Christus Mansionem Benedicat, meaning "May Christ bless this house."

Here is a fun, simple dessert to celebrate this wonderful feast!!

RECIPE: Twelfth Night Rum Cake (from catholiccuisine.com)

1 box yellow cake mix
1/4 cup water
1 tbsp. rum extract, divided nonstick spray
1/4 cup butter
2 chocolate coins
1/2 cup brown sugar
3 small gifts for those who find coins

Preheat oven to 325°F. Spray inside of bundt pan with nonstick spray and dust with flour. Combine cake mix plus water, eggs and oil (as directed on the cake package) and add 2 tsp. of the rum extract. Mix in a large bowl according to package directions. Pour batter into prepared pan. Bake 40-50 minutes or until toothpick in center comes out clean. Remove cake pan to cooling rack. For syrup, melt butter in saucepan over medium heat. Add sugar and water. Simmer 1-2 minutes or until sugar is dissolved. Remove pan from heat and stir in remaining 1 tsp. of rum extract. Using a dull wooden skewer, pierce cake (still in pan) 50-60 times, inserting skewer halfway into the cake. Brush bottom of the cake with 1/2 cup syrup and let stand 10 minutes to soak up. Using a butter knife, make 3 small incisions in the cake (again still in the pan) and insert the chocolate coins. Invert cake onto serving platter. Carefully lift off pan. Brush top of cake with remaining glaze. Dust with powdered sugar. Enjoy!!
