BAPTISMS

Congratulations to the parents and family of Olivia Helen Saunders, baptized on November 15.

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

Every holiday seems to have a movie we enjoy watching which gets us in the mood for the festivities. Thanksgiving has a few but the one I would like to focus on is a cartoon entitled, "A Charlie Brown Thanksgiving" produced in 1973.

When we think of Thanksgiving we generally think of a big gathering of family around a large table of food. The types of food we generally associate with Thanksgiving are turkey and dressing with cranberries and pumpkin pie.

When we watch Charlie Brown's Thanksgiving they get served some buttered toast, popcorn, jelly beans, and pretzel sticks. Awesome. Wouldn't that be a great Thanksgiving feast? It sure would be a lot easier to put on than the traditional meal.

Anyway, the gang is seated around the table with Franklin, Charlie Brown, Sallie, Marcy, Peppermint Patty, Snoopy, Woodstock and Linus.

Before they dig in, Peppermint Patti mentions someone should really say some words before they eat the meal. Everyone looks at each other with an awkward pause, but, guess who steps up and has the courage to say something?

Yes, it is Linus. Two things I want to mention. Why doesn't anyone name their kid Linus anymore? I think it's a cool name! Secondly, what great courage it took for him to say some words. Tune in to the Christmas Special because, once again, Linus steps up and offers some profound words on scripture and prayer.

Here is the prayer Linus offered for a Thanksgiving dinner blessing: "In the year 1621, the Pilgrims held their first Thanksgiving feast. They invited the great Indian Chief Massasoit, who brought ninety of his brave Indians and a great abundance of food. Governor William Bradford and Captain Miles Standish were honored guests. Elder William Brewster, who was a minister, said a prayer something like this: "We thank you God for our homes and our food and our safety in a new land. We thank God for the opportunity to create a new world for freedom and justice."

I hope on Thanksgiving Day when it comes time to gather around the table of plentiful food, whatever entrée and other side dishes might be featured, you will recognize it will be a fitting time to say something. There might be an awkward pause when everyone is looking at each other. I hope someone, maybe you, might have the same courage as did Linus and be prompted to offer a profound prayer of thanks to God.

From our church staff and all engaged in pastoral leadership, Happy Thanksgiving to all Resurrection members in our parish family!
