

Guadalupe Free Clinic receives grant from Mary Washington Hospital

The Guadalupe Free Clinic of Colonial Beach is pleased to announce the receipt of a generous grant from the Community Benefit Fund of Mary Washington Hospital Foundation on June 23, 2017. This grant will be used to defray operating costs and purchase of medications for Clinic patients for the period of 1 July 2017 through 30 June 2018. The Clinic recently celebrated

12 years of providing free medical care for the poor and uninsured residents of Westmoreland County. The Guadalupe Free Clinic, which is an outreach effort of the Catholic Diocese of Arlington, VA, originally opened its doors in May 2005. This grant represents a continuance of the generous support by Mary Washington Hospital dating back to the Clinic's establishment in 2005.

It is operated by a small staff and many volunteers who give of their time and talents to provide medical care and prescription medications free of charge to those in need. The Clinic operates on the grounds of St. Elizabeth of Hungary Catholic Church in Colonial Beach. The Guadalupe Free Clinic is supported solely by grants and donations of private individuals.
