Thank you and God bless!

To everyone at St. Louis; Thank you so much for the past eight years. Thank you for the memories and trusting me with your wonderful parish. I will miss the students and Youth of our parish the most. They have kept me motivated and full of hope for the future of our Church. Please welcome and pray for Fr. Ryan Higdon. He is a dedicated priest and I am positive he will lead this parish to greater heights of holiness and mission. I will miss all of you very much. Please pray for me as I start the next chapter of my priesthood in Temple. God bless you all!

PLEASE JOIN US TODAY as we say good bye to Father John and Father Red. The Parish Social Ministry, the Acts Community and the Knights of Columbus will host a reception for them following the 9:30 & 11:30 a.m. Masses in Grace Hall. It will be our way of thanking them for their time with us and wishing them great things to come. May God continue to bless and follow them both.

Quick Question

Doesn't the miracles performed by Christ obviate the point of God putting the Son of God as a regular human on Earth like us?

Answer

Not at all. The point of the Son of God taking on a human nature was to show forth the perfection of human nature and the power of God working in human nature. Thus, the miracle-working power that was already visible in some of the prophets of the Old Testament was also possessed by him, but in his case by nature as the Son of God using his humanity, personally united to him as the instrument of God's power. He was in a true sense not a statistically "regular" human being but the greatest of human beings.

This being said, it is important to note that he did not use his power for his own convenience or to wow his audience but to bear witness to the truth. By enduring the cross, most of all, he showed that he did not use his power for himself but submitted himself to the limitations and sufferings of our existence according to the will of his heavenly Father.
