PRAYER REQUESTS

To offer a Mass for a loved one, please stop by the parish office or call us to check the schedule and book your Mass.
From Zoe Nasr:
The MYO Christmas Event was really fun!
We got to interact with new people, make friends and play fun games!

We got to learn how to be true to ourselves, and love our perfect imperfections.
Together, we prayed, ate some good food, and exchanged gifts. Overall, it was a fun experience, and I encourage parents with high school kids to let them join MYO!

THANK YOU!!
St. Joseph’s Parish- Happy New Year!

An important part of every Seminarian’s formation is to enter into and experience one of our parish’s communities. Though it was a short assignment, spending Christmas with your community was a true blessing and an incredible way to end the year! Everyone I met and got to know made me feel so welcomed and right at home! You have a beautiful parish family and I was honored to be with you all to celebrate the birth of Our Lord!

Abouna Tony - You showed me a wonderful example of a shepherd who cares for his flock and desires the best for them. Thank you sincerely for your incredible hospitality, mentorship, and fraternity!

MYO/MYA - getting to meet some of you and spend time with you was the highlight of my trip! I remind you and your parents that you are not the future of our church, rather you are the PRESENT. Without you NOW, there is no future. Stay close to your church, your pastor, and one another. I look forward to coming back to St. Joseph’s and spending more time with you all!

To the Order of St. Sharbel members and all of the St. Joseph’s Parishioners- thank you for your continued support, spiritually and financially, of the Seminarians and the vocations of our Eparchy. Without you and your prayers, our Lord’s vineyard would be without the workers He needs. Please keep praying for vocations for our Eparchy!

Until we meet again, be assured of my continued prayers for your parish family!

In Christ,
Subdeacon Christian Hbaiter
