National Chaplain's Message

Fr. Matthew Kuhn
National Chaplain

Dear Sisters in Christ,

Our new National Regent has chosen to dwell on Christ's challenging words "Whatever you do for the least of my Brethren, you do for Me." (Matthew 25:40)

We are called to see and love Christ in each person; no one is too little to be loved, no one is unworthy of respect. Each and every human person has dignity, and deserves our love. Moreover, each person deserves to be loved as Jesus, to be loved by Jesus. As members of His Body, we are the encounter that people will have with Jesus in this world. Ours are the arms that must embrace them, ours are the lips that will speak His words of love for them, and ours are the lives that will reflect Jesus' joy to them. This means that we must be joyful people, not cynical gossips or busybodies. No one was ever attracted to the Church by hearing us criticize or demoralize each other. Jesus' words always build up, always invite us to greater joy.

When we authentically live the joy of our faith, we attract people to Jesus and His bride, the Church. Nothing is more important for our organization than this! Joy is a powerful gift, and so often the least of His Brethren need joy more than anything. We can give them food and shelter, but if we do not give them joy, we have not served the whole person. We can invite them to the supper table and their bodies will be fed, but if we do not invite them to Mass, how will they ever hunger for the Eucharist, their true food?

We are an organized body of Catholic Daughters. What is a daughter without her Father? What is a sister without her brothers and sisters, especially the least among them?

The call of our baptism is the call to communion, the call to shared life. Let us, therefore, share with one another the life of Jesus Christ, and the joy of living in union with Him who is the source of all joy. May the Catholic Daughters of the Americas become known for the joy we show and share.

Your brother in Christ Jesus,
Father Matthew

 Whatever you do for the least of my brethren, you do for me.
—Matthew 25:40

National Regent's Message

Shirley Seyfried,
National Regent

Dear Catholic Daughters,

Greetings and Happy Fall. What a spectacular National Convention we had in Billings, Montana. Thank you to the Montana State Board, the convention chairwomen, and the Montana CDA members for all of their hard work and wonderful hospitality. They really did an outstanding job which we all greatly appreciate. Thank you especially to Olga Samaniego for the super job chairing the convention. It was so great to see so many of you again. Thank you all for your vote of confidence in our new National Board, as well as your kind words and well wishes as we begin our term. Please pray that we have a successful and productive two years. We are here to serve you so please feel free to contact any of us if you have a need, problem, or request. We will work to the best of our ability to help you in any way we can.

In this issue of National Quarterly, you will find the new bylaws and the resolutions passed at the convention. You can also refer to our website www.catholicdaughters.org for a summary of what happened each day at the convention and to see many wonderful pictures. Thank you to Tom Panas for the informative summaries and Terrie Vacek for the wonderful pictures.

I would also like to say a very special thank you to Immediate Past National Regent, Anne Nelson for all of her hard work leading us these past two years. It was obvious from all the cards, letters, and tributes sent for her that we all appreciated her leadership and spirituality.

I have chosen as my theme for the next two years, "Whatever you do for the least of my brethren, you do for Me." (Mathew 25:40). As Catholic Daughters, we are servant people. We are to be the hands and feet of Jesus here on this earth. My goals then, which I presented at the convention, are threefold:

First, using the theme, "Whatever you do for the least of my brethren, you do for Me," I would like to ask each court to do at least one new project in each of these two years in answer to that call. Maybe you start going to nursing homes to entertain once a month, or help out at a pregnancy center for young mothers, or help to build a house for Habitat for Humanity, or go on a mission trip, whatever it is, I would like it to be two new projects for your court, one each year of the biennium. Then, I would like you to write up each project and send it to me. I would like to feature many of them in Share magazine and on the website.

My second goal is increasing membership and court development. As you all know, we have been working for the last several years to turn around the trend of our numbers decreasing. During these next two years, we will continue to work very hard to reverse this trend. I have asked Olga Samaniego, our new First Vice National Regent, to be our National Membership and Development Chairman, but our whole National board will be working to assist you in increasing our membership. Olga has a very successful history in recruiting and working with others in starting new courts. In the two years she was Regent in Texas, she and her development chairman, Carolyn Bachmann, who is also on this National Board and will be on the Membership Committee, started 17 new courts. Therefore, I'm sure she will have lots of great ideas to help us all. Please see her article on membership in this issue of National Quarterly. We would really like to see our numbers up over 100,000 again. This is a very lofty goal but I think with Olga's plan and all of your help, WE CAN DO IT!! I'm not saying that we will necessarily accomplish this in two years, but we must turn the trend around so that we have many more members in 2016 than we do today. It is critical that we all work together. Once the plan is developed, I ask that all states work with the team to implement it. We will have articles in Share and in the National Quarterly and may even plan regional development workshops. We will be ready and willing to help you, especially with court development. We will be happy to come to your states; just invite us.

I think these first two goals compliment each another. If we are going to expand our membership, we must have programs that attract new members. So, in addition to starting new courts, we need to look at what we are doing in our courts to be attractive to new members. Do we have projects that women can get involved in to help the poor, the underprivileged, the children, the elderly? Let's all make a commitment to strengthen our programs in our local courts, start at least two new projects, and start new courts in our state. I know we can do it.

The third goal, to increase our own spirituality, is the foundation of everything we do as Catholic Daughters. Remember, as we recruit new members, to tell them that Catholic Daughters are doing what we can to spread God's love here on earth. Before every project please pray for its success and that God will guide us in everything we do. Even those who cannot physically help on a project can contribute by praying for the success of your endeavors.

I also want to mention that to help us increase our spirituality we have planned another Catholic Daughters Pilgrimage. In the fall of 2013, we had a wonderful pilgrimage to the Holy Land led by Father Gosnell. In the fall of 2015, we are planning a pilgrimage to Rome and Medjugorje led by our new National Chaplain, Father Matthew Kuhn. I hope many of you can go on the Pilgrimage.

I look forward to working with the new National Board and all of you during the next two years. May God bless you and your work in the Catholic Daughters of the Americas. Always remember "Whatever you do for the least of my brethren, you do for Me." (Mathew 25:40).

Peace in Christ,
Shirley

Personel Changes at the National Office

As most of you know, Paz Maja, our bookkeeper, retired on September 1, 2014. Paz worked for us for 24 years and was an important part of keeping CDA accounts checked and balanced. She will be sorely missed by all of us at national Headquarters.

On August 25, 2014, we welcomed Brittany Pick to headquarters as our Accounts Receivable Coordinator. She is excited to be working here and is working hard to get up to speed on all things CDA.

In August, we also said goodbye to Carol Dalton. Carol worked at the National Headquarters since 1987, we wish her well.

Called and Gifted

Olga Samaniego, First Vice National Regent
Chairman of Membership and Court Development

It's a new CDA year, a new national term, and our National Regent, Shirley Seyfried, has chosen as her wonderful theme, "Whatever you do for the least of my brethren, you do for me." (Matt.25:40) As the new national board sat down to discuss our vision for the new term and how best to make that theme a reality, it soon became apparent that one need is paramount—the need to increase our membership. However, our vision is not just about wanting bigger numbers, it is about preserving who we are and about having the ability to effectively serve the "least of my brethren." The Catholic Daughters of the Americas is an extraordinary organization with a dual purpose—spirituality and service. We are in the unique position to offer women the opportunity to come to know God more fully so that they can serve Him more completely. We offer lay women an opportunity to listen to God's call and to recognize and develop the gifts He gives so that they can fulfill the missions to which they are called. Service organizations are all hurting; new ones are popping up just as fast as old ones are becoming extinct, but if we go the way of the dodo, we lose much more than just a name and our CDA history. We lose an important avenue for women to be of service within the Church. Certainly we can all continue to serve as individuals, but as an Order of women who share faith and values, we can tackle bigger problems, and we can pray and work together to bring about great good.

We are hoping you have found your membership in CDA to be fulfilling and that you love your organization enough to help us save it. We are asking all of our members to be a part of our Membership and Court Development Team. Our team has one main goal: a membership of 100,000. Your participation in the following four activities will help us reach that goal:

- Each court must offer more opportunities for members to develop and grow spiritually. CDA must be an organization where women find nourishment for their souls.
- Each court must also work on program development. We need vital, active courts that women will want to join. (We plan to help with this!)
- Every member can embrace BOGO—Bring One-Gain One! We need every member to bring in one member. If every member brings one, we will double our membership!
- And, finally, each state should name a court development chair and set the goal of instituting at least five (5) new courts this term. (You are not on your own with this—we will have a very mobile team to give you help and support!)

Soon, each state regent will receive a letter outlining our program and explaining the procedures we will put in place for support. Additionally, national representatives will be out to visit their states as soon as possible to help get the ball rolling. Meanwhile, we ask for your prayers and your willing spirits to help us grow CDA. Please share your love of CDA in your area. If you have any leads where you think the priest or the women of the parish might be interested in CDA, please call me at 915-474-7895 or email me at olgasamaniego@hotmail.com. I promise that we will not let those leads drop!

This year is going to be packed with activity. In addition to everything else, 2015 is a state convention year, so we expect to be busy—but that is a good thing. I look forward to working with you and to serving as Membership Chair. We are called and gifted for service. Together we will answer that call! May the peace of the Risen Lord be with you!

We are happy to announce that for 2014-16.

Welcome aboard Sherry!

Would you, your court or your state like to receive a plaque in Pittsburgh, PA in July 2016? Consider making a pledge for $1,903. There is a payment plan for every budget!

Request a free 1903 Society brochure from the National Office (just pay postage).

Coming Soon!

Many have asked about memorializing the windows in the National Office, we will soon be announcing plans for such an opportunity.

Think about this as a possibility for your court or your family or for you. It can also be a way to honor an officer or a friend.

There will be a limited number of opportunities available as the building only has about 40 windows. Plan ahead.

It was requested that the following prayer, which Deacon Douglas Campbell from North Dakota, used to open a session of the 55th Biennial National Convention, be published in National Quarterly.

God Our Creator, We give thanks to you, who alone have the power to impart the breath of life as you form each of us in our mother's womb: grant, we pray, that we, whom you have made stewards of creation, may remain faithful to this sacred trust and constant in safeguarding the dignity of every human life.

Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Guide our efforts as we promote The Human Life Amendment in North Dakota and renew among your people a readiness to protect all human life. Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Important Notice

If your bank or any other institution requests proof of your 501(c)3 status, simply contact the National Office and we will forward the appropriate letter to the parties concerned.

There is never a fee for this documentation and no IRS office or other legitimate entity will require payment for you to prove your tax exempt status.

Leadership in Action: Developing Programs & Evaluating Our Meetings

Helene Shepard, National Regent-Elect

For the past several years, in most of the CDA publications, you have been reading about Leadership Goals and Skills. National and State Boards have been hard at work developing leadership programs and encouraging leaders to improve their skills. However, we can't be satisfied with the status quo. As leaders, we see what is, but we also know what it could be. To lead is to be in front, breaking new ground, and moving forward. Good leaders are vital to the life and future of CDA. It is also imperative that we increase our membership. Much work is needed in both of these areas. First, we need to evaluate our monthly meetings to see if the skills we have been developing over the last few years are actually being incorporated. Secondly, we need to develop programs that will excite Catholic women and encourage them to want to join our ranks.

During this new CDA term we will turn our attention, putting these skills into practice in all our local courts. We will have a series of articles in the National Quarterly and in Share magazine that feature topics such as, Evaluating our Meetings—so that we can make them more effective—and Developing Programs—to entice young women to join CDA. These programs will help to fulfill and enhance the theme for this term. “Whatever you do for the least of my brethren, you do for me.” (Matthew 25:40)

We need to make our meetings matter. Most people don't want to attend meetings that drag on and where hours are wasted. Some meetings can be deadly, especially if the members go home feeling unproductive and unfulfilled. Time is one of our most precious commodities and people want to spend it wisely.

We ask the question, how do you make a boring meeting more productive? If you increase activity and creativity at meetings it will make your members more alert and lead to increased participation. I challenge you with two questions:

How was your last meeting?

What programs are planned for your court in the coming year?

If you can't answer both of these questions with a positive attitude, you need to be on the lookout for future issues of the National Quarterly and Share magazine for ideas and suggestions that are tried and true. The next step will be to implement these ideas in your court.

In the meantime, for starters, check out the Tools of the Trade section on Creating an Agenda. (It can be found in Section 5, Page 5 - 10) You might see that your next meeting will take on a new more efficient look. Good luck.

As part of the new program to increase membership, the Leadership Committee will be working closely with the Membership Team to help increase membership and institute new courts, with an emphasis on developing programs and activities for local courts.

If you have any ideas that you would like to share, please send your suggestions and topics for programs to be developed to:
