

ST. RAPHAEL SMALL GROUPS

Theme for 2018-2019

Who we are; who we are called to be.

Part 1: Who we are

I am a human being, a woman, of a specific age, with a specific family, education, and career in teaching and administration. I am a baptized member of the universal Catholic Church, a citizen of the USA, a part of the community of the Archdiocese of Washington, and a parishioner at St. Raphael Church.

Who are you? _____

Part 2: Who we are called to be

I am called to live and grow in my relationship with Christ and with others. Through God's grace and goodness to me I'm called to share my life, gifts, and talents with all those in my circle of influence; and to widen that circle of "discipleship" as much as I can.

Who are you called to be? _____

Part 3: Follow-up

- Take some time these summer days to consider what it would be like to read the each parishioner's answers to the above questions.
- Then try to describe the parish as a whole.
- Share your thoughts about this with some of your friends.
- Will these friends be a part of your SRSG this Fall?
