

Our Lady of Lourdes School Incoming 1st Grade Summer Assignment Choice Board

- Students choose at least one activity from each subject area column, two MUST be a book (Math, Reading, Writing, Science / Social Studies, Religion) Access books on YouTube.
- Place a check on the activities completed and have caregiver/parent/guardian sign the bottom of the form. ALL WORK MUST BE RECORDED ON A SHEET OF PAPER.
- Students please return this sheet and all the work you complete to your teacher upon your return to school. (IF POSSIBLE, PLEASE STAPLE ALL THE SHEETS)

Math	Reading	Writing	Science / Social Studies	Religion
Reading Book: DOMINO Addition by Lynette Long Choose and draw the dominoes with spots that equal to 6. (number concepts)	Reading Book: If You Take A Mouse to School by Laura Numeroff. Cause and Effect / Making Predictions What do you think you will learn in first grade? Write about it!	Write your first and last name. Make as many words as you can by using the same letters of your name.	Draw a picture of your family at a special event. Label it or write a simple sentence.	How to be a friend? Write one sentence or more about being a friend. Add a picture to your writing, color it and add details.
Different ways to show the number 10. Record your work on a sheet of paper.	Choose a book you like to read or be read to you. What makes this story fiction/nonfiction? What words or character actions help you know this is fiction / nonfiction?	Write two or three sentences about something you did and want to remember.	Chores at home How do you help keep your house tidy? Draw a picture and color it. Add a word or a simple sentence.	Kindness Why is important to be kind? Write one or two simple sentences about it. Add a drawing and color it!
Count a handful of coins or Read and record the time on an analog clock. (measuring)	Make as many words as you can from the words "Snow day".	Make a list of ideas to give to your classmates on what to do on a snow day that doesn't include technology.	What is your favorite thing to do on a sunny day? Tell me about it! Record your work on a sheet of paper.	I Am Special! Draw yourself on a sheet of paper. Add positive qualities to describe you.
Skip count by 2's, 5's or 10s to 20. Count backwards from 20. (Number Sense)	Think about what words rhyme with "snow" and what words rhyme with "day."	If your pet or stuffed animal could talk, create questions of what you would want to ask them. Draw your pet or stuffed animal on a sheet of paper and write one question.	Reading Book: The American Flag by Lloyd G. Douglas. History and heritage of American Symbols. Write two facts about the American flag. Draw the flag and color it.	God Created Everything! Draw a picture with things God created. Color your illustrations and use labels. Have fun drawing God's Creation!
Math Concept Write and solve a math story problem. Draw an illustration to show your work.	Read something nonfiction and share 2 or more facts about what you learned.	Brushing Your Teeth Step-by-Step. Show the sequential order of brushing your teeth with pictures, phrases, or simple sentences.	Reading Book: A Chair for My Mother by Vera Williams. Making Choices! Choose and draw three things you need and three things you want. What is the difference between needs and wants? Write about it!	What does sharing means to you? Write about it! Draw it and add details. Add a sentence or two.