Listen to Jesus

What has Jesus said to you this week? Have you heard him? Are you taking time to listen? Or avoiding him because you think you know what He will say? We might be surprised; especially if we are afraid of what we think he'll say. If we are afraid of Jesus' words, we don't know Him or we are believing the lies of the evil one and our broken, fallen world. His words are words of mercy and love. Yes, that means we are called to conversion, repentance, and forgiving others. Jesus does not seek to condemn us. We do that to ourselves when we go our own way.

I invite you to see this new movie showing in Fargo on Mon., Oct 28, and soon on video. Love and Mercy - Faustina.

In 1931, Jesus appeared to Faustina Kowalska as the King of Mercy. Clothed in a white robe and emanating two large rays from his side, one white and one red, He asked Faustina to paint this image of Himself along with the phrase, "Jesus, I trust in You" and to spread the message of mercy around the world. He promised that anyone who venerated this image would not perish. The gripping new docudrama LOVE AND MERCY presents unknown facts and recently disclosed documents that shed new light on the vision of Faustina.

Aided by scientific analysis, the film reveals how the Divine Mercy image and the Shroud of Turin were compared to one another to stunning conclusions. Dramatically recreated scenes between Saint Faustina and her confessor Fr Michal Sopocko traces the story of the origins of the image and how the devotion to Divine Mercy was born and spread throughout the world despite a initial ban of the devotion by the Catholic Church. Shot in the U.S., Poland and Lithuania, the film is a compelling hybrid of dramatization and documentary-style storytelling that will leave viewers in awe of this spectacular account of divine friendship.

Question of the Week

Do I receive the Lord in gratitude at Mass and at other times in my life? How can I change my attitude, to see what I have as blessings from God?

Verse of the Week: “ For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own likings, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander into myths.” (2 Timothy 4:3-4)

Assignment: Spend 5 minutes of quiet in the morning... read the Bible Gospel for the day (usccb.org/readings or sign up for a daily email) for one or two minutes and think about and listen to what God is saying to you.

Box of Joy - the materials to send a box of joy to kids in another country are available in the back of the church.

40 Days for Life: Prayer Vigil for a Culture of Respect for Life and the end of Abortion - 7-8 pm, Wed, Oct 16 - some will gather for pizza before 7 pm; others will go for hot cocoa afterward.

Parish Updates: Please contact Fr Gunwall. Here are few items planned for a good day in October: Sts PP - new garage doors, concrete pillar repair, and plaster repair in front and side entries, St A - carpet outside church and hall doors, and tree trimming over church and rectory roofs.

Stewardship Moment: "Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God? (Luke 17:18)

Most of us live "easy" lives. We have food, shelter and clothing. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you.

Extraordinary Missionary Month: Sponsor a seminarian in Africa - Thank you to everyone who contributed last week or this week to Vitalis' support. He is extremely grateful.

Quote of the Week

“Modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers, it is because they are witnesses.” - Pope Paul VI
“We speak to God when we pray; we listen to Him when we read the Scriptures.” - Saint Ambrose
