National Vocations Awareness Week

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life. Some remain as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God's call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. Today begins National Vocation Awareness Week. During this week, please pray about how God is calling you to live your vocation more deeply. Encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or consecrated life.

Teach Your Children to Use GPS

After Mass today, have a conversation with your children, asking, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" After a few moments of discussion, ask, "Who do you think God wants you to be when you grow up?" Emphasize to your children that God has a specific plan in mind for them, and that following God's plan is the surest way to happiness. Every life decision—which college to attend, whom to date, which job to pursue, whether to enter seminary, whom to marry—should be undertaken only after praying for God's guidance. In other words, encourage kids to navigate life using GPS—God's Positioning System.

How Parents Can Nurture Vocations

- Set an example. Model discipleship and a loving marriage to your children.
- Seek role models. Befriend priests, sisters, and brothers and invite them to your home.
- Look to scripture. Read and discuss the Bible stories of Mary's response to God (Luke 1:26-39), and Jesus calling the Apostles (Mt 4:18-22).
- Pray for the future. Pray aloud that your children will follow Jesus and remain open to holy marriage, priesthood, and religious life.

If your child does express interest in the priesthood or religious life, be supportive. The best thing you can say is, "Whatever God wants for you, I want for you, too. Just keep praying to discover His will for your life."

News of the Week:

Tue, 5 StA 7:00pm Reconciliation
Fri, 1 StA 6:00am Men's group
Sun, 10 StA 10:30am Sunday Social - Ham dinner & BINGO

Question of the Week

How do I picture the entire communion of saints, the Church? How does realizing that I am united with those who have died comfort me?

Verse of the Week: "Therefore it is said, 'Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light.'" (Ephesians 5:14)

Assignment: Pray for our deceased loved ones and all those being cleansed in purgatory - Offer the Divine Mercy chaplet or the prayer in the box below.

Pictorial Directories are here - They will be available for pick-up this week; check your name off the list when you pick up your copy. Everyone gets a copy even if you didn't submit or have a photo taken. This is for you to at least see who your fellow parishioners are... That woman who sits on the right side of the church half-way back - now I know who she is. :)

Sunday Social - 11:30 a.m. on Nov 10 at St Anthony: Ham dinner, sides and dessert. A few games of BINGO available afterward. All for a free will donation.

Family visits - I received an invite for dinner. :) Can I host or join you? I'll cook here or visit your house. Monday or Tuesday evenings are best but other times work. I await your invitation but may start calling. Even if we visited last year, I am happy to visit again this year. :)

Box of Joy - Thank you to everyone who participated in the Boxes of Joy. Drop them off by this next weekend. I will ship them next Sunday.

Richland County Christmas Tree tags are available on the table in the back of the church.

Prayers for the Dead

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them
May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Thank you!

... for the recent work at our parishes: Sts Peter & Paul - Greg & Barb found the bat entry and closed that. Greg Lingen & Dan Glynn put one garage door in place. St Anthony - Joe Braun, Jane Althoff, Anita and Arnel Onchuck fixed the concrete and replaced the carpets outside our church doors and Jane trimmed the bushes and plants around the rectory and church to prepare for winter. Catholic Charities ND also sent a thank you for the donations they have received so far from their appeal.

Stewardship Moment: "But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" (Luke 19:8)

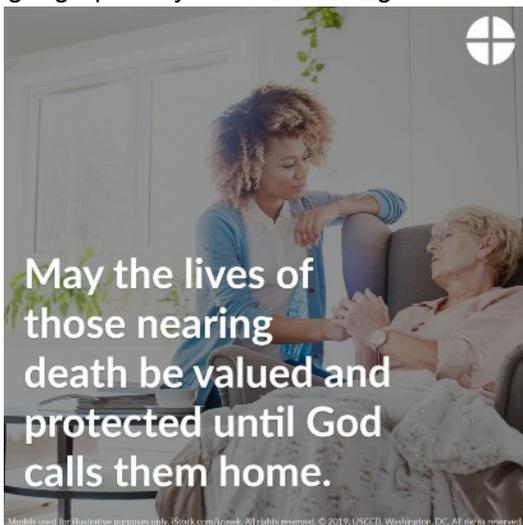

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the blessings we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but is called to give equal sacrifice. No amount is too small or insignificant! Open your heart, how is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

Community Announcements

See the attached flyer for the Triennial appeal for the Archdiocese for the Military Services (AMS). The AMS is geographically the nation's largest archdiocese, spanning the globe. AMS-endorsed priests go wherever American servicemen and women are stationed, bringing them the sacraments, spiritual support and the Good News of eternal salvation through Jesus Christ
