Come Holy Spirit!

On the back side, I mention that I forgot to set out the Novena to the Holy Spirit a couple weeks ago. At Divine Mercy, I reminded you that a novena can be prayed anytime. So please pick up a copy of the Novena to the Holy Spirit and begin to pray it this weekend. We all need to receive and grow in virtue and the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit. Also, for those who did not complete the prayer card included with my Christmas letter, there are copies in the back of the church. I received one in the mail today as I prepared this. I am praying for the requests of those who did complete one. Please allow me to pray specifically for you and your intentions by filling one out and returning it to me. No one else sees these cards. - Fr. Kurtis Gunwall

Here is a note from Jasper, our seminarian for the summer. He shared a little about himself last weekend at the Masses...

Hello everyone! My name is Jasper Keller, and I am a Seminarian for the Diocese of Fargo, stationed here at Mooreton and Mantador parishes for this summer. I was born and raised in Fargo, with one older brother, Colton. My mom is Marlene Ptacek; she grew up near Cogswell, ND. My dad is Brian Keller; his family is from Tinta, MN, but he grew up in Gwinner, ND. My parents got a divorce when I was in 6th grade, which was very difficult for all of us. Yet, because of my relationship with the Father, I made it through, and in that hardship the Lord planted the seeds of my adult faith. Coming out of high school, I went to NDSU for a year majoring in Math and Computer Science (minoring in Spanish and Music). That year was amazing for me; I grew a lot in my relationships and person, but especially in my relationship with the Son, Jesus. I used my newfound freedom to intentionally walk with Jesus through every adventurous day. From that relationship, I felt more and more called to apply to seminary, a calling which I had come into that year considering. Having applied and gotten accepted by none other than Fr.

Gunwall himself (Vocations Director at that time!), I attended St. Gregory the Great Seminary in Seward, Nebraska. My past 2 years there have been an immense gift to me, and I am so grateful for the opportunity from God and from the Diocese to grow and be formed in such an intensive and beautiful fashion. I am becoming more and more who I am, and who I am called to be: a beloved Son of the Father. My time here this summer is already aiding me in that endeavor, and hopefully the Lord will use me to grace you all in some small way as well. Thank you so much for having me, and I look forward to getting to know you all!

Questions of the Week

Do I rely on the Holy Spirit for guidance? When I search my heart, what stubbornness do I find that could use honest examination?

Verse of the Week: "So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God" (Isaiah 41:10a)

Assignment: Pray the Novena to the Holy Spirit - for yourself, our parishes, and our youth confirmed this month and those receiving their first Holy Communion.

We celebrate the birth of Stockton Lee Peltier to Dillon & Alexis Peltier.

Join us for The Search (www.formed.org) - These 25 minute videos and our discussion afterward will be our main topic for the next few weeks. Free access at formed.org/faithathome They are informative, beautiful and hope filled. We begin at 7:00 pm on the parish Zoom account. This week, "Who is Jesus?"

Are you a Christian Mother - If you are a mother and member of our parishes, join the Confraternity of Christian Mothers. Pray for your kids, grandkids, and family to grow with God. The St Anthony's chapter will meet on Friday, June 5 at 3 pm to prepare for the coming year and welcome the new leadership team. All members or interested women are invited to attend this short meeting. You are also invited to stay after Mass on the 1st Sunday of each month for a few minutes of prayer together. If you are not yet a formal member, please contact Anita Onchuck or Jane Althoff. Please submit your dues this week.

Pray for our Confirmation & First Eucharist students: Serenity Althoff, Adlee Mauch, and Xavior Mauch. Evan Onchuck will receive his first Holy Communion.

Pray for our students making their First Confession. The gift of the Sacrament of Reconciliation is available and necessary for all of us. Do you accept this gift from Jesus' or do you avoid it because of fear, shame, or pride? "Do not be afraid!" It is a gift of mercy, healing, strength and forgiveness. Don't let it sit unopened and the graces of the Sacrament unreceived.

Are you in need? - Are finances overstretched? Donors have offered to help - whether you need a gift or prefer a short loan, contact Fr. Gunwall for personal, confidential assistance.

Stewardship Moment: (1 Corinthians 12:7)

"To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good."

To receive the gift of the Holy Spirit you must open your heart and invite Him in! Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts, words and actions every day! Be grateful for all the gifts God has given you! Regardless of our individual circumstances, God has given all of us many blessings. What we do with those gifts is our gift back to God! By generously sharing everything we have and everything we are, we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered" and our lives truly reflect God's light, love and mercy.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Breathe into me Holy Spirit, That all my thoughts may be holy. Move in me, Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Attract my heart, Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy. Strengthen me, Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy. Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy.

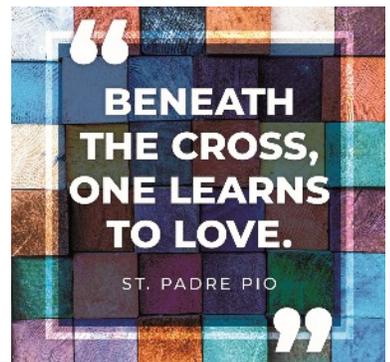

Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church - The Monday after Pentecost is now the celebration of this title of Mary. The opening prayer of the Mass describes the meaning of this feast day: O God, Father of mercies, whose Only Begotten Son, as he hung upon the Cross, chose the Blessed Virgin Mary, his Mother, to be our Mother also, grant, we pray, that with her loving help your Church may be more fruitful day by day and, exulting in the holiness of her children, may draw to her embrace all the families of the peoples. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Community News

Trinity Youth Camp is planning to hold three camps in July for those entering 4-8 grade. July Camp weeks (location) are: 8-12 (Bottineau-Pelican Lake) | 15-19 (Garrison) | 22-26 (Bottineau-Pelican Lake). See their website for more info trinityyouthcampnd.com. Our parishes will help pay half the cost of the camps as we want to promote these encounters with God for our youth.

Men's weekend retreat July 17-19 - join the Made for Greatness Men's Retreat at Stiklestad Lodge near Fort Ransom. Msgr Gregory Schlesselmann and Fr Neil Pfeifer will lead men deep into the heart of God and will equip them to experience anew His transforming power and presence. The cost of the retreat is $200 but our parish will pay $100. Men can find out more or register by visiting
