Soaking Up The Son: 12 Things Every Catholic Should Try To

Do This Summer by Becky Roach - School is out, the weather is getting warmer, and ice cream trucks are once again making the rounds. Summer is here! For many summertime means a relaxed schedule with no classes (and no homework!), shorter workdays, and vacations. It is a joy-filled season and a time to make memories.

However, it can also be a time that many take a vacation from their spiritual life. Often youth groups and other ministries take a break for the summer, but that doesn't mean you should take a break from God. With more time on your hands, summer can be a wonderful time to challenge yourself and grow closer to Christ.

Here are 12 suggestions on how to "soak up the son" this summer. What would you add to the list?

1. God doesn't take vacations...so don't take a vacation from Him - Summer often means a more relaxed and laid back schedule, but don't let that have the effect on your prayer time. If you're sleeping in, make sure you still take the time to invite God into your day before you roll out of bed.

2. #SquadGoals - Whether we like to admit or not, the people we surround ourselves with have an impact on how we live our lives. Choose to be around others that help you in your faith walk and push you towards holiness. Look for people that can find the joy in life no matter what their circumstances may be.

3. No shoes, no shirt....I'll serve you. - You've probably noticed a sign like this on the door of a store - "No shoes, no shirt, no service." Though this is intended to be a notice for carefree beachgoers to dress appropriately to enter the establishment, the reality is that there are many in our world that lack shoes and clothes. Make it your personal mission to find a way to serve the poor and oppressed this summer. Find a homeless shelter, crisis pregnancy center, or summer camp for troubled youth to give to in some way during these three months.

4. Take a Trip to Some Place Holy - Pilgrimages are not things of the past. We have the opportunity to make them today and take the opportunity to use our vacation to grow closer to God. You could choose to visit a Shrine, a Cathedral or to find one of the designated Holy Doors to walk through during this Year of Mercy.

Many times you may be able to receive a plenary indulgence because of your journey and prayer.

5. Join Your Library's Summer Reading Program - Well...you might be too old to receive the prizes that libraries frequently offer to kids for reading over the summer, but it is still a good idea to pick up a book (or two!) that will provide you with some spiritual insight. We have a good list of books to get you started {see original article at catholic-link.org/12-things-every-catholic-should-try-to-do-this-summer/}

When have I noticed the Spirit's presence in my life? How can I become more aware of the Spirit's effect on me?

Verses of the Week: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," (Matthew 28:19)

Homework of the week: Include Mass and time for prayer in your planner. How we spend our time shows what/who we love!

Thank you to everyone who donated aluminum for Alzheimer's. 889 pounds of cans were picked up at 40¢/lb for a total of $355.60, which will be submitted for matching funds. Thanks for making this project a success!

Thank you!

** Please pick up pans and bowls in the kitchen at St Anthony's hall.

Stewardship Moment: "The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and it children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..." (Romans 8:16-17)

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

6. Find a Mentor and Be a Mentor - If you have a little extra time on your hands this summer, use it to invest in someone. First, invest in yourself. Ask God to lead you to someone who could be a spirit mentor to you. Asking a priest, your Godparents, or your former youth group leader might be a good place to start. To lead others, it is important to have someone leading you. In addition to investing in yourself, find someone that you could be a mentor to as well.

7. Go Outside and Pray - When you can feel the warmth of the sun or hear the crashing waves, it can remind you of the powerful presence of God. Take a moment (or a lot of moments!!) this summer to pray outside in the midst of God's creation.

8. Throwback Thursday - Popsicles. Slip 'n' Slides. Freeze Tag. Water balloons. There is so much JOY to be experienced in summer. Think back to the things you enjoyed as a child free of the burdens of life. Do at least one of those activities and then thank God for the gift of pure joy that is only found in Him.

9. Power Off - Take some time to power off and disconnect from all your devices and social media. If you can't go off the grid, just pick a day that you can set everything aside. When you feel tempted to check your phone or computer, say a prayer instead. Listen for God to speak when you turn out the noise of the world.

10. Memorize the Word - Find a scripture verse that you love and memorize it. In times of stress, repeat it. In times of joy, sing it. Let it be your Summer anthem.
