Scripture Readings

Sunday, August 16, 2020: Isaiah 56:1, 6-7, Psalm 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8, Romans 11:13-15,29-32, Matthew 15:21-28.

Dear Class of 2020,

You were the first parishioners to greet me as I arrived at Holy Cross. I remember driving up and seeing your pictures in front of the church. Thank you for your greeting! Although this year has been very different from the past, in many ways it stays the same. God still loves you. You are God's sons and daughters and He desires to have a relationship with you.

In a time of social distancing, may you never socially distance from God, the Catholic Church his Son Jesus Christ founded, and your own family. My prayer for you is that you become strong catholic men and women who give witness to The Faith. At a time when many do not believe in the Eucharist, may your relationship with our Eucharistic Lord be the foundation of your life. Even though I may not have met you in person, you remain in my daily prayers. May God bless and keep you!

Rev. Stephen Vacek

A PRAYER TO ST. THOMAS AQUINAS FOR CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Saint Thomas Aquinas, you are called by Holy Mother Church, the Angel of the Schools. Your wisdom, gathered through long meditation from the source of all wisdom, the most holy Trinity, has long been a shining light in the Catholic Church. Ignorance of the things of God is a darkness now enveloping the minds of many of our countrymen. In this darkness, we need a saint like you who will protect, foster, and nourish the schools we have, and guide and strengthen us in establishing and building newer and more adequate schools for the instruction of our children in the ways of Christ. Help and bless the generous laity, sisters, brothers, and priests who labor so unselfishly in the classroom to spread the knowledge of Christ. Inspire our Catholic men and women to be most generous in the support of the schools we have. Grant to parents the wise generosity they need to give their child back to God when that child wishes to follow a priestly or religious vocation. Help us, Saint Thomas, Angel of the Schools, to understand what you taught, and to follow your example. Amen.
