NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

IN OUR PARISH

School News: Save the date! Monday evening, August 16th, there will be an Open House/Welcome Back to School Cookout on the parish school grounds from 5-7 pm. Everyone is invited. There will be hamburgers, hot dogs and other picnic foods (thank you, Knights of Columbus) music, and Kona Ice will be here (cost-donations to the TAP fund for the school). The teachers will be present to meet the families and allow the students to drop off school supplies. All families and parishioners are welcome to attend. – Bess Huffman, Principal

The First Day of School for St. John students K-6 is Thursday, August 19. Preschoolers will begin school on Monday, August 23.

CYSC News: We welcome Ben Shaw to briefly talk to us after Masses the weekend of August 14/15 about his experiences as a summer missionary at Catholic Youth Summer Camp (CYSC). Kona Ice will be available for all after Masses as well, with 100% of the proceeds and donations to go towards our parish CYSC fund to help send our middle and high school-aged kids to this virtuous, Christ-centered camp. Learn more at <https://cysc.com> or scan this code. Thank you for your support!

Readings for Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I - 1 Kgs 19:4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD! Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat. Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water. After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the LORD came back a second time, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

Reading II - Eph 4:30—5:2

Brothers and sisters: Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption. All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

Gospel Reading - Jn 6:41-51

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven," and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets: They shall all be taught by God. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."
