THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

IN OUR PARISH

School News: Save the date! Monday evening, August 16th. Open House/Welcome Back to School Cookout on the parish school grounds from 5-7 pm. Everyone is invited. There will be hamburgers, hot dogs, other picnic foods (thank you, Knights of Columbus) and music. Thanks, too, to Kona Ice for attending (cost of shaved ice will be by donation, with 100% of the proceeds going to the TAP fund for the school). The teachers will be present to meet the families and allow the students to drop off school supplies. All families and parishioners are welcome to attend. – Bess Huffman, Principal

The First Day of School for St. John students K-6 is Thursday, August 19. Preschoolers will begin school on Monday, August 23.

CYSC News: We welcome Ben Shaw to briefly talk to us after Masses this weekend about his experiences as a summer missionary at Catholic Youth Summer Camp (CYSC). Kona Ice will be available for all after Masses as well, with 100% of the proceeds and donations to go towards our parish CYSC fund to help send our middle and high school-aged kids to this virtuous, Christ-centered camp. Learn more at <https://cysc.com> or scan this code. Thank you for your support!

Readings for The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Reading I - Rv 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab

God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant could be seen in the temple. A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was with child and wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth. Then another sign appeared in the sky; it was a huge red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads were seven diadems. Its tail swept away a third of the stars in the sky and hurled them down to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman about to give birth, to devour her child when she gave birth. She gave birth to a son, a male child, destined to rule all the nations with an iron rod. Her child was caught up to God and his throne. The woman herself fled into the desert where she had a place prepared by God. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have salvation and power come, and the Kingdom of our God and the authority of his Anointed One."

Reading II - 1 Cor 15:20-27

Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death, for "he subjected everything under his feet."

Gospel Reading - Lk 1:39-56

Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled." And Mary said: "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, and has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever." Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.
