Holy Family Parish

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter proceeded to address the people
in these words:

“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.

Rather, in every nation whoever fears Him and acts uprightly is acceptable to Him.

You know the word that He sent to the Israelites
as He proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.

He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that He is the one appointed by God
as judge of the living and the dead.

To him all the prophets bear witness,
that everyone who believes in him
will receive forgiveness of sins
through his name.

The Word of the Lord.

Romans 5:5-11

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Hope does not disappoint,
because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For Christ, while we were still helpless,
yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly.
Indeed, only with difficulty does one die
for a just person, though perhaps for a good person
one might even find courage to die.

But God proves His love for us
in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

How much more then,
since we are now justified by His blood,
will we be saved through him from the wrath.

Indeed, if, while we were enemies,
we were reconciled to God
through the death of His Son,
how much more, once reconciled,
will we be saved by His life.

Not only that, but we also boast of God
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The Word of the Lord.

Romans 5:17-21

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

If, by the transgression of one person,
death came to reign through that one,
how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of Justification
come to reign in life through the one person Jesus Christ.

In conclusion,
just as through one transgression
condemnation came upon all,
so through one righteous act
acquittal and life came to all.

For just as through the disobedience of one person
the many were made sinners, so through the obedience of one
the many will be made righteous.

The law entered in so that transgression might increase but, where sin increased, grace overflowed all the more, so that,
as sin reigned in death,
grace also might reign through justification for eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

Romans 6:3-4, 8-9

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

Those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.

For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a spirit of adoption, through which we cry, “Abba, Father!”

The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and join heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.

For creation awaits with eager expectation

the revelation of the children of God; for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord

but because of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.

We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains

even until now; and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

If God is for us, who can be against us?

He who did not spare his own Son
but handed him over for us all,
how will he not also give us
everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?

It is God who acquits us. Who will condemn?
It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,
who also is at the right hand of God,
who indeed intercedes for us.

What will separate us from the love of Christ?

Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?

No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,

nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things,
nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

Romans 14:7-12

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

None of us lives for oneself,
and no one dies for oneself.

For if we live, we live for the Lord,
and if we die, we die for the Lord;
so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

For, this is why Christ died and came to life,
that he might be Lord of both the dead
and the living.

Why then do you judge your brother or sister?
Or you, why do you look down
on your brother or sister?

For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God;
for it is written:

“As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bend before me,
and every tongue shall give praise to God.”

So then each of us shall give an account of himself to God.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
For since death came through a human being,
the resurrection of the dead
came also through a human being.

For just as in Adam all die,
so too in Christ shall all be brought to life,
but each one in proper order:

Christ the first fruits; then, at his coming,
those who belong to Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the First Letter of Saint Paul
to the Corinthians.

Behold, I tell you a mystery.

We shall not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed,
in an instant, in the blink of an eye,
at the last trumpet.

For the trumpet will sound,
the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we shall be changed.

For that which is corruptible must clothe itself
with incorruptibility,
and that which is mortal must clothe itself
with immortality.

And when this which is corruptible clothes itself
with incorruptibility
and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about:

“Death is swallowed up in victory.
Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?”

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.
But thanks be to God who gives us the victory
through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the second Letter of St. Paul
to the Corinthians.

We know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and place us with you in His presence.

Everything indeed is for you,
so that the grace bestowed in abundance
on more and more people may cause the thanksgiving to overflow for the glory of God.

Therefore, we are not discouraged;
rather, although our outer self is wasting away,
our inner self is being renewed day by day.

For this momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory
beyond all comparison,
as we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen;
for what is seen is transitory,
but what is unseen is eternal.

For we know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent,
should be destroyed, we have a building from God,
a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

The Word of the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:1, 6-10

A reading from the second Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

We know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent,
should be destroyed, we have a building from God,
a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

So, we are always courageous,
although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord,
for we walk by faith, not by sight.

Yet we are courageous,
and we would rather leave the body
and go home to the Lord.

Therefore, we aspire to please him,
whether we are at home or away.

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ,
so that each one may receive recompense,
according to what he did in the body,
whether good or evil.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians.

Our citizenship is in heaven,
and from it we also await a savior,
the Lord Jesus Christ.

He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the first Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters,
about those who have fallen asleep,
so that you may not grieve like the rest,
who have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose,
so too will God, through Jesus,
bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord,
that we who are alive,
who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep.

For the Lord himself, with a word of command,
with the voice of an archangel
and with the trumpet of God,
will come down from heaven,
and the dead in Christ will rise first.

Then we who are alive, who are left,
will be caught up together with them in the clouds
to meet the Lord in the air.

Thus we shall always be with the Lord.
Therefore, console one another with these words.

The Word of the Lord.

2 Timothy 2:8-13

A reading from St. Paul's second Letter to Timothy.

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead,
a descendant of David:
such is my gospel, for which I am suffering,
even to the point of chains, like a criminal.

But the word of God is not chained.

Therefore, I bear with everything for the sake
of those who are chosen,

so that they too may obtain the salvation
that is Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory.

This saying is trustworthy:

If we have died with him
we shall also live with him;
If we persevere
we shall also reign with him.

But if we deny him
he will deny us.

If we are unfaithful
he remains faithful,
for he cannot deny himself.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the first Letter of John.

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.
Yet so we are.

The reason the world does not know us
is that it did not know Him.

Beloved, we are God's children now;
what we shall be has not yet been revealed.

We do know that when it is revealed
we shall be like Him,
for we shall see Him as He is.

The Word of the Lord.

A Reading from the first Letter of John.

We know that we have passed from death
to live because we love our brothers and sisters.
Whoever does not love remains in death.

Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer,
and you know that no murderer has eternal life
remaining in him.

The way we came to know love
was that Jesus laid down his life for us;
so we ought to lay down our lives
for our brothers and sisters.

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the Book of Revelation.

I heard a voice from heaven say,

“Write this:

Blessed are the dead

who die in the Lord from now on.”

“Yes,” said the Spirit,

“let them find rest from their labors,
for their words accompany them.”

The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the Book of Revelation.

I saw a large white throne
and the one who was sitting on it.
The earth and the sky fled from his presence and there was no place for them.
I saw the dead, the great and the lowly,
standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened.
Then another scroll was opened, the book of life.
The dead were judged according to their deeds,
by what was written in the scrolls.
The sea gave up its dead;
then Death and Hades gave up their dead.
All the dead were judged according to their deeds.
Then Death and Hades
were thrown into the pool of fire.
This pool of fire is the second death.
Anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the pool of fire.
Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth.
The former heaven and the former earth
had passed away, and the sea was no more.
The Word of the Lord.

A reading from the Book of Revelation.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth.

The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be His people and God himself will always be with them as their God.

He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away.”

The one who sat on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

To the thirsty I will give a gift from the spring of life-giving water.

The victor will inherit these gifts, and I shall be his God, and he will be my son.”

The Word of the Lord.
