THIS WEEK IN VIRTUES...

TEMPERANCE - Temperance can be represented by an olive wreath. In ancient times the olive wreath was the crown given to athletes and emperors. Temperance is often the fruit of hard work and gives the prize of authentic self-mastery. It crowns our decisions with a holy balance, joy, and inner peace.

Key Points -

- Temperance aims to perfect our emotions by moderating their attraction to pleasure.
- Temperance moderates desires and pleasure, particularly of food, drink, and sexuality.
- Temperance aims to create balance in the pursuit of pleasure.

Dear Families:

We are off to another school year. I am overjoyed to visit with our children each week in the classroom. Would you parents help me with something? I would like you to find your child's baptismal date. We are putting together a calendar with your child's name on their baptism date, and they will be prayed for throughout the day - by the whole student body! An extra special day besides their birthdate.

From time to time I will have articles in the newsletter on certain subjects to encourage our students and direction on certain things for our parents. If there are any questions that you would like me to address please email me your questions at: chad.wilhelm@fargodiocese.org

Enjoy the Fall!

Fr. Wilhelm
