Brothers and Sisters in Christ -

I wish first of all to thank all those who took time out of their Saturday to come to St Anselm and celebrate my Installation with myself, my family members and priest friends. I thank those who assisted with the liturgy preparations – especially Mrs. Leonetti and the choir, the sacristans, the parish deacons and staff, and also those behind the scenes who did much for the big day last week. I do believe that the Bishop was impressed with the size of the crowd for Mass, and also the joyful spirit of our celebration of the Installation Mass. I want to thank those who stayed afterwards to enjoy the Chick Fil A meals, and greeted Bishop Fitzgerald and myself under the tent outside. Thanks to Chick Fil-A Whitman Square & to their manager, Julia Clifton, for preparing, bringing the meals, and assisting in handing out the meals after Mass. Additionally I want to gratefully acknowledge the gifts, cards, and messages sent to me after the Mass on Saturday. I very much appreciate the gifts, acknowledgements and prayerful support contained in the messages and cards. Please know of my own gratitude to God for sending me here to Parkwood, and for your kindness to me this past year even amidst the pandemic and COVID restrictions. May the Lord bless all your goodness and kindness to me and my guests this past Saturday!

The Gospel this weekend is a parable of apparent injustice. Our way is that we should be given more for doing more. The owner made a deal with the early-morning workers and a deal with the noon-timers and the evening crew. The deal is that all will be paid the same whether early or late. This is a parable about God's historical relationship beginning with Abraham and continuing through the prophets in the Hebrew Scriptures, and then in the New Testament with the disciples to whom the parable is related. Jesus is telling His followers that God's love for Israel is constant and everlasting. The disciples are the late-comers with whom Jesus continues the original "deal" or Covenant. The parable stresses the continuation of God the Father's, (the Owner's) saving love for all the "Owner's" people. The entire group of workers will work together, because the Owner has made an everlasting "deal" with them all. This is an important parable for St. Matthew. In a poetic way it expresses the meaning of the Epiphany which begins the first part of Jesus' public life. Salvation has come through the Jews, beginning with God's call to Abram and Abraham's agreeing to the "Deal" of the Covenant. God gave flesh to the Covenant in His only begotten Son Jesus, who is the "deal" by being the human presentation of that same eternal love of God.

It is so human of us to decide who belongs and whom we should exclude. Whom does God embrace and whom does God ignore. The comfort for us is twofold. We belong together under the bright umbrella of God's seeking love and we are still called to go out into His "vineyard" to tend, cultivate and harvest. We do not have to "seek" the Lord; rather we are to "seek" the ways of the Lord's calling and sending us. Abraham listened to the God who is "near" and abandoned his ways to walk God's ways. The prophets listened and allowed God's words to comfort and challenge on behalf of the God who is "near". The disciples are listening and being sent to continue establishing God's kingdom which is opposed by the kingdoms of our creation.

The "last" and the "first" are not better than each other, but better for each other and for the tending of the vineyard. What all this means for us is to listen to the goodness of God within us, because we are people of the Covenant and we are meant to be sent to do His work. God's ways are as high as the sky, but from above God is raining His grace upon all of us – and He will not return until our reality here on earth becomes the Kingdom of Heaven.

Pastor

This restriction will be effective until Monday, October 26th, when additional weekday Masses may be requested.

Please limit each intention to one name unless it is for a deceased couple such as “Mr. & Mrs. John Smith”.

The offering for an “announced Mass” will be $10.00 each. Please use the schoolyard entrance; no one is permitted through the school entrances. Doors will open promptly at 10 AM. You MUST wear a mask!

Thank you for your consideration.

The forms are available at the Parish Center.

Vincentian Message...

On September 27, the Church celebrates the feast of St. Vincent DePaul, who knew that “God had sent him to bring good news to the poor.” Together with your gifts, the members of the Society of St. Vincent DePaul continue his work and mission in our parish.

CARING FOR FRIENDS

We are looking for volunteers to transport the meals from our freezer in the History Room of the Parish Center to the Caring for Friends facility on Townsend Road (no personal deliveries required). Meals Needed!

We would be grateful if you could cook a little extra and donate a meal or two to Caring for Friends. Supplies for packaging are in the History Room of the Parish Center. Please consider supporting this worthwhile cause.
