Gospel

Luke 11:1-13

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread and forgive us our sins for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us, and do not subject us to the final test."

And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived at my house from a journey and I have nothing to offer him,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked and my children and I are already in bed. I cannot get up to give you anything.' I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence.

"And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish? Or hand him a scorpion when he asks for an egg? If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

Stations of the Cross

The Center for Byzantine Material Arts has the paintings of Stations III, VII and VIII.

These are the first of the Stations to be restored. It will take at least a couple of months for this restoration process.

We appreciate your patience is appreciated during this process.

God Bless

Fr. Pablo Bonello

I'd like to express my sincere gratitude to the wonderful people of the Archdiocese of Washington for your extraordinarily kind and hospitable welcome.

I look forward to serving you as your new archbishop, being with you in prayer and in celebration of our faith, and learning more about this wondrous local church.

- Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory

Catholic Communications and Human Development Second Collection

On the weekend of August 4, 2019, the Archdiocese of Washington will take up the Catholic Communications and Human Development second collection.

This collection helps the Church proclaim the good news through word and deed, promoting the New Evangelization. It provides an opportunity for the faithful to support the Church's communications efforts as well as non-profit groups working to reduce poverty and to empower the poor and needy

Funds for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) support organizations, both locally and in other parts of the country, that serve the poor and disenfranchised.

Want to help?

The 22 missing ventilators in the stained-glass windows are being restored.

The cost to restore each ventilator is $410.

Washington Art Glass Studio has taken the ventilators to their studio where any missing or badly broken pieces of glass will be replaced. The panels will be re-leaded and additional reinforcing bars will be added to each ventilator. After they are restored, they will be re-installed in their original location. Each steel frame will be adjusted so the vents will open and close easily. This entire process will take 6 to 8 weeks.

If you want to help St. James pay for the restoration of these ventilators it would be greatly appreciated. You can take one of the envelopes from the vestibule of the Church to make your contribution. Please write "WINDOWS" and YOUR NAME on the envelope.

Any contribution toward this project will be included in your tax deductible funds at the end of the year.

Thank you for your consideration in helping offset the cost of this project. God Bless you all!
