Gospel

Luke 12:32-48

Jesus said to his disciples: Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.

“Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master’s return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them. And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

Then Peter said, “Lord, is this parable meant for us or for everyone?” And the Lord replied, “Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master on arrival finds doing so. Truly, I say to you, the master will put the servant in charge of all his property. But if that servant says to himself, ‘My master is delayed in coming,’ and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, to eat and drink and get drunk, then that servant’s master will come on an unexpected day and at an unknown hour and will punish the servant severely and assign him a place with the unfaithful. That servant who knew his master’s will but did not make preparations nor act in accord with his will shall be beaten severely; and the servant who was ignorant of his master’s will but acted in a way deserving of a severe beating shall be beaten only lightly. Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more.”

The Memorial Mass for Father Vincent R. Capodanno, MM, will take place at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, 4 September 2019, in the Crypt Church of the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, 400 Michigan Avenue, Northeast, Washington, D.C. His Excellency, the Most Reverend Timothy P. Broglio, Archbishop for the United States Military Services, will be the main celebrant. This annual Mass is celebrated in memory of Father Capodanno, killed in Vietnam on 4 September 1967, as he aided embattled Marines. Father Capodanno posthumously received the Medal of Honor, and in May 2006 the Catholic Church officially proclaimed him a Servant of God, formally initiating his cause for beatification. The Father Vincent Capodanno Guild is the only official organization established to promote the cause for canonization of Father Capodanno.

For more information, visit www.CapodannoGuild.org. All are invited to attend the Memorial Mass on the 52st anniversary of his death. There will be open seating, so please plan to arrive early. If special parking is necessary, contact email Mary Preece at 202-719-3642 or at mpreece@milarch.org.

Military members are encouraged to wear uniform of the day, and business attire is appropriate for civilians.

Want to help?

The 22 missing ventilators in the stained-glass windows are being restored.

The cost to restore each ventilator is $410.

Washington Art Glass Studio has taken the ventilators to their studio where any missing or badly broken pieces of glass will be replaced. The panels will be re-leaded and additional reinforcing bars will be added to each ventilator. After they are restored, they will be re-installed in their original location. Each steel frame will be adjusted so the vents will open and close easily. This entire process will take 6 to 8 weeks.

If you want to help St. James pay for the restoration of these ventilators it would be greatly appreciated. You can take one of the envelopes from the vestibule of the Church to make your contribution. Please write "WINDOWS" and YOUR NAME on the envelope.

Any contribution toward this project will be included in your tax deductible funds at the end of the year.

Thank you for your consideration in helping offset the cost of this project. God Bless you all! Fr. Pablo Bonello
