Stewardship: Christians share their talents, time and treasure to carry on the work of the Church. Your offerings are essential to St. Ignatius Church, for us to maintain our staffing, programs and buildings.

Cemetery: There are grave sites available for active parishioners in the new section at the base of the hill. Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese of Washington administers the sale of lots and burial. Because we do not have an adequate endowment, the costs of maintenance come from general parish funds. Devotions to the Blessed Mother We know that the Blessed Mother was honored in the early church as the mother and a disciple of Jesus. In the midst of the early heresies, the Church insisted that Mary the Mother of Jesus be known and understood as the Mother of God. She was not the mother of Jesus who became God by adoption or by an infusion of his spirit into the human Jesus. She had to be the Mother of God if Jesus were truly God incarnate.

This shows us that there were those in the early church who sought to minimize the miracle of the Incarnation and the role of a young woman in that unique cooperation of God and Humanity. It was not long after that assertion of the role and cooperation of Mary of Nazareth in our salvation, that some would need to be restrained in the other end of the spectrum for excessive adulation of the Blessed Mother. In the late four century St. Epiphanius felt obliged to write "Let Mary be held in honor. Let the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost be adored, but let no one adore Mary."

Devotion to the Blessed Mother is part of our larger understanding of the Communion of Saints. We pray to the Blessed Mother in the same way we would to any deceased and holy Christian, asking the saint to intercede for us. To have one close to God ask for assistance for us from God in the form of grace or miracle is part of belonging to the great community of believers.

It is obvious how some ways of honoring saints could be excessive. St. Epiphanius for instance found the offering of cakes in front of a statue of the Blessed Mother would be seen as idolatrous or treating the Blessed Mother as ancients treated their household god-idols. It is also easy to see that a lack of demonstrated devotion would be a sign of weakness of faith, a lack of confidence of our bond with the saints in heaven.

This is a challenge for humans living a life of faith. If we do not do things such as processions, for May crownings, First Communion, Confirmations, Holy Week liturgies maybe even accompanied with some incense, we are not so easily reminded of the transcendence of God and his favor on those who believe. That is to say the mystery of God involved in the world is not just some words. On the other hand, if we make the external processions and devotions the sum total of our faith, we could hardly be said to have faith.

For the past, fifteen months we have missed more than a minimal external participation in the life of the Church, the communal life in Christ. It is time to remind ourselves of our connection to God and his people in a more participatory way.

Please join us at 10 a.m. this Sunday for a May procession to honor Our Blessed Mother. The First Communion class along with the other CCD children, their families, and anyone else who wishes to join us, may process starting at the parish hall, across the road, to the Shrine of Our Lady. We will have a May crowning of Our Blessed Mother by one of the First Communion children. We will then recite the rosary, led by the children of the parish.

Restore and Renew – Capital Campaign Restoration progress

We know it looks like nothing is happening, but over the past several weeks, we've had meetings with interested contractors. Not only did we have a good showing, but stained glass window companies, general contractors and masonry firms have revisited to do detailed work-ups. There will be a few clarifications. We will then move to the bidding process, overseen by our engineering firm. For now, we cannot say when the physical work will start, but the preparation is moving quickly.

Livestream our Mass St. Ignatius Church will livestream Mass at 9:00 a.m. on Sunday mornings on Facebook. Go to our Facebook page or reach that page from our website: www.chapelpoint.org.

The Charles County Literacy Council needs tutors for adults who need help with reading, math, ESOL, and earning their GED. No teaching background is necessary; CCLC will train you. Our next training is scheduled for June 23 & 24 (evenings, via Zoom) and Saturday, June 26 for three hours at the CCLC conference room in LaPlata (United Way building on Rte 488.) Tutoring is still being conducted virtually. If you are willing to devote a couple of hours a week to help change someone's life, please call CCLC at 301-934-6488, email charlescountyliteracy@comcast.net, or contact Julie Mitchell at juliemitchell120@gmail.com. Check out the CCLC website: www.charlescountyliteracy.org. If you're not able to tutor but would like to support CCLC financially, donations are most welcome, since our fundraising efforts have been hampered. Our address is: 10250 La Plata Road, LaPlata, MD. Thank you for your consideration!
