

Dear Beloved People of Divine Savior and our cherished visitors:

A very wealthy man asked a priest what he can do to cut back on the extravagant Christmas gifts his adult children asked for and expected. The priest suggested that the man give each offspring $10,000 which they were free to share with their favorite charity(ies). The wealthy man called the priest on Christmas Eve and invited him to his home so that he might rescue the gathering from the very sad, entitled and disappointed family members gathered at his home (a true story). I think Jesus probably got a similar response when He advised the Pharisee host to invite to his lunch or dinner the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind. While those in desperate need might not be able to repay the host in an equitable manner, they will nonetheless be a source of great blessing to the host.

We know that this is the case for the volunteers that serve needy people through our St. Vincent de Paul Society as well as our Christmas Basket ministry and Community Meal. Service to the poor can always be a very enriching experience; even if we have no money or food or other assistance to offer. A simple, courteous greeting along with a loving smile can bring great blessings to all involved. Our psalm affirms this notion because behaving this way is following the example of God who provides a home for the poor and forsaken.

Jesus' advice to take the lowest place when we are invited to a wedding banquet is a wildly whacky story that should have us bent over with belly laughs. A wedding banquet is a symbol of how we imagine heaven to be. People are celebrating the love that unites people just as that love can bond all the people God created with God and with one another. A similar image is presented in our second reading when it refers to Mount Zion as the city of the living God where all people are united in the abundant love that God shares. To worry about where we sit for any of these events is very much a laughing matter. We are all loved equally and sharing the food and drink at such a feast is a symbol for what we do when we celebrate Mass. We come together to express our gratitude to God for God's love; we share in the Body and Blood of Jesus as our way of renewing our desire and commitment to honor and to live out our role in this interwoven, vibrant and fulfilling union with one another so that so nourished we can return to our daily responsibilities to transform the world so that more people will be prompted to join in the feast.

This sort of thinking is reflected in our first reading as well. We are to conduct our affairs with humility. This means we do our best to keep in mind that we are who we are by the grace and blessing of our creator God. The more we realize that we are all gifts of our all-loving God, the more likely we will be inclined to feel the pain of those who suffer because of oppression, abuse, poverty and inhumane treatment. We can be the watering that quenches the flaming needs of these people

DID YOU KNOW?

Divine Savior is offering an Early Childhood Faith Formation at 9:30am in the St. Cecilia Room (during Mass) for our young parishioners ages 3 – Prekindergarten.

Children have a uniquely strong connection to God. Therefore, we are called to exercise different approaches when supporting the faith of our youngest parishioners. Children at this age cannot be “taught” about God, but rather God is absorbed through all five senses from a properly prepared environment. In this way, the children are supported in their curiosity. In this way there is nothing that can get between God and his beloved children. This is an intimate relationship and love of God that will grow as the children grow. What a gift we can give to our youngest parishioners by simply getting out of the way! For more information regarding this ministry or to learn how you can help with it's development, please con-
