INTROIT Spiritus Domini [Wisdom 1: 7; Psalm 68: 1]

The Spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, alleluia: and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia. Ps. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

COLLECT O God, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

APPOINTED PSALM Psalm 104: 1, 24, 29-31, 33-34

PRAISE the Lord, | O my | soul: * O Lord my God, thou art become exceeding glorious; thou art clothed with | ma-jes- | ty and | honour.

24 O Lord, how manifold | are thy | works! * in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is | full of | thy- | riches.

29 When thou takest away their | breath, they | die, * and are turned a- | gain- | to their | dust.

30 When thou lettest thy breath go forth, they | shall be | made; * and thou shalt renew the | face- | of the | earth.

31 The glorious majesty of the Lord shall endure | for- | ever; * the Lord shall re- | joice- | in his | works.

33 I will sing unto the Lord as | long · as I | live; * I will praise my God | while I | have my | being.

34 And so shall my words | please- | him: * my joy | shall be | in the | Lord.

ALLELUIA Emitte Spiritum [Psalm 104: 30]

Alleluia. Alleluia. O send forth thy Spirit and they shall be made: and thou shalt renew the face of the earth. Alleluia.

Veni, Sancte Spiritus

Come, Holy Ghost, [Here genuflect] and fill the hearts of thy faithful people: and kindle in them the fire of thy love.

OFFERTORY Confirma hoc [Psalm 68: 28]

Stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us for thy temple's sake at Jerusalem: so shall kings bring presents unto thee. Alleluia.

COMMUNION Factus est repente [Acts 2: 2, 4]

Suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak of the wonderful works of God. Alleluia. Alleluia.

FIRST READING Acts 2: 1-11

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. And they were amazed and wondered, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God."

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brethren: No one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in every one. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST
called Whitsunday

GOSPEL John 20:19-23

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Roman Missal

INTROIT The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world and that which contains all things understands what is said, alleluia. ℣. God arises; his enemies are scattered, and those who hate him flee before him. Sing to God, chant praises to his name, extol him who rides upon the clouds.

COLLECT Almighty ever-living God, who willed the Paschal Mystery to be encompassed as a sign in fifty days, grant that from out of the scattered nations the confusion of many tongues may be gathered by heavenly grace into one great confession of your name. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-31, 34

℟. Lord, send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God, you are very great!

O Lord, how manifold are your works!

The earth is full of your creatures. **℟.

When you take away their spirit, they die and return to their dust.

When you send forth your Spirit, they are created;

and you renew the face of the earth. **℟.

May the glory of the Lord endure for ever,

may the Lord rejoice in his works.

May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the Lord. **℟.
